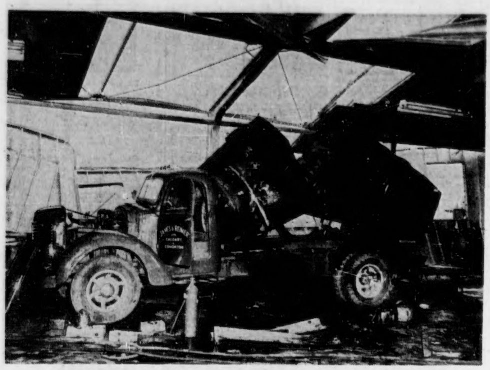
$7,900 Lost By Hotelman In Snatch-Grab Robbery



MYSTERY BLAST RIPS CITY GARAGE

BATTERED TRUCK is evidence of shatte ring explosion which ripped through Jones-Reimer plant at 104 street and 70 avenue h ere near midnight last night. Blast which injured one man and caused over $3,000 d amage, is still a mystery to investigators.

Worker Is Hurled 30 Feet As Tank Truck Explodes

A mystery blast last night sent one man to hospital and caused an estimated $3,000 damage to a southside garage when an empty tank blew up. The blast shattered the building of James and Reimer, trucking contractors, 7015 104 street.

In University hospital is Art Beisel, mechanic, who lives five miles south of the city, just east of the Calgary Trail. He is believed suffering cuts to the abdomen, and arms, minor burns, shock and possible rib injuries.

Reimer was working on top of the truck at the time. He was hurled 30 feet through the air by the blast. He was lying groggy in the flames which surrounded the truck for 20 feet on all sides when his brother Harry, South Edmonton, rushed in, pulled him to his feet and assisted him from the flames.

He was rushed to hospital by Allan Rayner, 8101-104 street, who was passing in a car when the blast occurred.

HEARD FOR 2 MILES

Workers estimated the blast could be heard two miles away.

TRAPPER HAS PROOF FOR HIS FISH STORY

THE PAS, Man., Oct. 8.—(CP)—One of the largest pickerel ever caught in northern Manitoba lakes has been shipped here to be frozen and placed on exhibition at the Northern Manitoba Trappers' festival this winter.

The fish, 27¼ inches long with a girth of 16 inches, weighed almost 10 pounds when taken by a trapper 90 miles northeast of here.

Second City Drive-In Construction Started

Edmonton is to have a second outdoor drive-in theatre which will be located at 109 street immediately outside the south side limits of the city.

Announcement of the new theatre was made today by Mervin "Red" Dutton, president, Western Drive-In Theatres Ltd. He estimated cost of this structure at between $115,000 and $150,000.

Starlight Theatre, which has received wonderful support from Edmontonians and district residents, sparked the construction of the second outdoor theatre at Edmonton, he said.

FELT OBLIGATED

"Edmonton is so rapidly becoming a great metropolitan city that my company felt obligated to proceed with the second theatre," Mr. Dutton declared.

Competition will be staged to find a suitable name for the theatre, Mr. Dutton said.

The new theatre will be ultra-modern and will incorporate many features which were not available when the Starlite was built.

Originally, it was intended to locate the theatre on the Calgary Highway south of Edmonton, but great amount of traffic on that highway decided executives to locate one-half mile east of the four-lane road.

WORK HAS BEGUN

Work on the new theatre has started. Contractor on the project is Standard Gravelling and Surfacing Co. The theatre will be in operation by May 24, 1950.

Starlite theatre will continue to operate as long as weather permits.

Electric car heaters ordered from United States are not available due to U.S. exchange restrictions, Mr. Dutton said, and thus winterlong operation of the theatre will not be possible.

Mr. Dutton paid tribute to the manner in which public received church services at the Starlite, sponsored by the Edmonton Bulletin and his company.

FIRST ON CONTINENT

Edmonton, to the best of his knowledge, is the first city on the continent to use this modern medium for religious services, he said.

BULLETIN WILL HOLIDAY

Warmer Air On The Way

The furnace can be turned down a bit, but not much. The shivering temperatures brought by Arctic blasts which have covered the district for the past few days are being followed by a warmer air system from the Pacific.

Temperatures today are expected to rise to 40, following last night's low of 20 and to approach the normal for the season of 58 in the succeeding days.

Cloudiness will accompany the rise in temperatures, but no rain or snow is expected.

In northern Alberta, a low of 18 was reported from Whitecourt while Medicine Hat, in the south, had a reading six degrees lower.

Yesterday's snow in Edmonton added .02 inch to the season's precipitation total.

Forecast for today and tomorrow: Snow flurries this evening. Sunny and a little warmer tomorrow. Winds west 20 tomorrow. Low tonight 28, high tomorrow 55.

Newcombe Tough Spot Bum Hurler

Ed Lopat on Mound For N.Y. Yankees In Fourth Game

EBBETS FIELD, BROOKLYN, Oct. 8. — (AP) — Don Newcombe, giant Negro right-handed pitcher who lost the first game, was named the starter for Brooklyn in today's fourth game of the World Series with New York Yankees.

Ed Lopat, left hander, was designated earlier by the Yankees as their hurler today.

Newcombe, who won 17 games and lost eight for the Dodgers lost the first game of the series after joining the club in mid-May, in Yankee Stadium Wednesday on Tommy Henrich's ninth-inning homer. The jumbo-sized Negro struck out 11 Yanks in that fray.

MUST WIN

Today's game is a "must" for the Dodgers, who now trail the Yankees two games to one. A Yankee triumph would put the American League club in a position to close out the best-of-seven competition with another victory tomorrow.

If a sixth or seventh game is necessary the clubs will return to Yankee Stadium for them.

Lopat's season's record is 15 victories and 10 defeats. He was knocked out of the box on his last regular season start by Philadelphia Athletics.

WINNING LINEUP

With righthanded Newcombe working for the Dodgers, Stengel decided to stick with his winning lineup that included Gene Woodling in left field, Yogi Berra catching and Bobby Brown on third base.

Manager Burt Shotton discovered Carl Furillo was not ready to play because he had aggravated his groin injury yesterday. So Shotton sent Gene Hermanski to right field. Gene, a lefthanded batter, usually does not play against southpaws.

Otherwise Shotton had his right-handed hitting lineup in there. Only Duke Snider and Hermanski swing from the left. Hermanski was dropped down to eighth place in the order, behind catcher Roy Campanella.

SIX WOMEN ELECTROCUTED IN SUCCESSION

SAO PAULO, Brazil, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Six women were electrocuted in succession here yesterday after an iron rod hit a high-tension wire in a flooded yard.

Mrs. Isoldina Martine had borrowed the rod to open a drain in her flooded back yard. When she touched it against live wires overhead, the current killed her. Three of her daughters ran to save her.

Each died when she touched her mother. The same fate met Mrs. Martine's sister and the neighbor who had loaned the rod.

City Property Owners Rap Auditorium

Edmonton doesn't need a civic auditorium, members of the Property Owners' Association decided last night.

At a general meeting held in the Public Library, the group aired the auditorium question thoroughly, and came to the conclusion that the city can't at present afford to build one.

It was pointed out that Edmonton is the only city of its size in Canada not to have an auditorium.

SOME SUPPORT

Said one:

"Upkeep wouldn't necessarily be so very high. In Vancouver, the civic auditorium is used as a movie house five nights a week.

"By throwing it open for a number of activities, its cost would be paid for in a relatively short time."

However, the majority present vetoed the scheme. Motion to the effect that construction of an auditorium would be an unnecessary expenditure for the next few years was passed.

RENT CONTROLS

Rent controls were also discussed at length by the association.

It was decided to petition the federal government urging that controls be abandoned.

Problem of smoke and cinders in the Rossdale area surrounding the power plant was given consideration.

A district resident protested that dust from the plant made it impossible for householders to hang out their washing on many days.

GAS OR SCREENS

The association agreed the city should either replace the present coal-using facilities with gas or install screens.

A group of Rossdale citizens will see the city council Tuesday night.

Nurses Held

TOKYO, Oct. 8.—(AP)—At least 144 Japanese Red Cross nurses are prisoners of Chinese Communist armies, American Red Cross headquarters for the Far East said today.

One Killed As Truck, Car Collide

Car Passenger Is Injured In Road Smash

A 35-year-old Alberta man was instantly killed last night and another was taken to hospital after a car-truck collision two miles south of Morinville on Highway 2.

Dead is Herman Vollmer of Riviere Qui Barre, eight miles west of Morinville.

Suffering severe injuries in Royal Alexandra Hospital is Hermadias Geion of Riviere Qui Barre, a passenger in the auto.

THREE-TON TRUCK

Vollmer was driver of a three-ton truck which was in collision with an auto driven by Gordon Marhaugen of Edmonton.

Marhaugen escaped uninjured, but his passenger, Geion, required hospitalization.

Body of the trucker was taken to Andrews-McLaughlin Funeral Home where it is being held pending a preliminary inquest.

Surviving Vollmer are his mother, Mrs. J. Vollmer, of the town of Vollmer; three brothers, Joseph Calihoo and John and Henry, both of Vollmer.

Vollmer is six miles south of Morinville.

Boy 12, Killed On Fair Ride

SIMCOE, Ont., Oct. 8.—(CP)—One child was killed and a second seriously injured yesterday when a midway ride at a county fair in this southwestern Ontario town broke and dropped them 40 feet to the ground.

Hospital authorities said Harry J. Lalonde, 12, of Simcoe, died of skull and brain injuries. His companion—the only other person in the ride's compartment—was Robert Moulton, 13, taken to hospital with serious chest and abdominal injuries.

The boys were riding in aeroplane type compartment of a ride labelled "Spitfire" at the fair's children's day. A cross-bar connecting the compartment to the main section of the ride broke and the cab-like compartment fell to the ground.

Brief Case Seized Here in Daylight

A citywide man hunt is on in Edmonton today for the daring thief who robbed city hotel-owner Brant Matthews of $7,900 cash as he walked along 101A avenue.

Matthews was enroute to his hotel, the New Edmonton, on 97 street and 101A avenue, when the thief struck.

Matthews told police he was on his way back from the Imperial Bank with $7,900 in cash in a brown briefcase.

As he neared Werner's Hardware, Matthews said, a man came up behind him, snatched the case, and ran behind the old police station, south towards Jasper avenue.

ABOUT 11 A.M.

Matthews fixed the time as about 11 a.m.

He described the thief as 25 years old, six feet tall, dark, slender but well built, long legged, wearing dark overalls and a windbreaker.

Matthews gave chase for a few blocks, but lost the daring bandit.

The hotel-owner then rushed to police station where he breathlessly made the report.

Deputy Chief of Police Alex Riddell and every available detective are combing the city in an effort to track down the barefaced bandit.

Police have thrown a dragnet around every cab company, rail and bus station in case the culprit may attempt to leave the city.

VICTIM'S STATEMENT

In a statement to the Bulletin just before presstime, Mr. Matthews said:

"The bandit accosted me just at the alleyway between Werner's and the Old Police Station. He grabbed the morocco bag from me and ran south and to the right. I gave chase, but couldn't keep up with the long-legged strides he made.

"The stolen money was made up of $7,000 in 10's, $500 in fives, $400 in ones and $60 in change."

Hundreds Are Trapped In Snowstorm

BOISE, Idaho, Oct. 8.—(AP)—National Guardsmen battled into the central Idaho forested area today, trying to rescue hundreds of hunters marooned by the first snow storm of the year.

Rescue trucks headed for the Minidoka National Forest, carrying emergency food, blankets, clothing and car chains.

DAY-LONG STORM

Snow that piled as deep as 10 inches in a steady, day-long storm endangered the hunters. Some 3,000 deer hunters entered the forest yesterday as a special hunt opened. The national forest lies along the Idaho-Utah border south of Twin Falls.

Other big game hunters were in Boise and Payette National Forests.

Frostbite and frozen feet were reported.

Hundreds of hunters were isolated and their cars bogged in drifts.

Many persons were taken to hospitals for frost bite.

In Oregon snow piled three feet deep at the popular Timberline Lodge ski resort on Mt. Hood.

PASSES COVERED

Snow of lesser depths covered most of the Cascade Range passes in Oregon and Washington.

The region recorded temperatures down to 20 degrees above zero. Mild Seattle even got a few flakes, the earliest trace of snow in history there.

Socialist May Lead France

PARIS, Oct. 8.—(Reuters)—Socialist leader Jules Moch today accepted an invitation from President Vincent Auriol to undertake an "information mission" on the possibilities of support if he were nominated premier-designate.

Moch, 56, was minister of the interior in the government of Henri Queuille which resigned this week.

President Auriol also talked with the chairman of the labor and economic committees of both houses on wages and prices policy, which split and brought down the Queuille administration.

Hidden Loot Found In Sock

RAMORE, Ont., Oct. 8.—(CP)—Maurice Descoteaux, 33, charged with the armed robbery of a Co-operative Credits Union in this northern Ontario hamlet, led police today to the spot where the $1,375 loot was cached. Police said the money was hidden in an old woollen sock under a pile of green spruce, about a mile from a lumber products camp where Descoteaux was arrested.

Suits For $17,000 Are Accident Sequels

Two suits totalling $14,936 were filed in Supreme Court yesterday following traffic accidents at rural points.

Fred Topille, of Mundare, registered a claim for $12,413 against Edward and Lucian Courchesne, Fort Saskatchewan.

The plaintiff alleges he was struck down May 24 as he was walking along the highway a quarter-mile east of Fort Saskatchewan.

He claims he suffered compound fracture of the right leg, concussions, and claims permanent injury to his health which will hamper his ability to earn a living.

He claims negligence on the part of the driver, Lucien Courchesne. The car is owned by the boy's father, Edward Courchesne.

In the second suit, Napoleon P. Ponton has filed a claim for $2,523 against Einar and Douglas Berg. All are of Forestburg, 85 miles southeast of Edmonton.

The plaintiff alleges reckless driving and negligence on the parts of the defendants in connection with an accident a year ago three miles south of Strome, in which his truck turned over and he suffered head lacerations, bruises, loss of blood, and permanent injury to his left eye.

SOLID AS GIBRALTAR after 50 years is marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Forrest, pioneer Edmonton residents who yesterday celebrated golden wedding anniversary. Forrests celebrated anniversary at family dinner in Corona Hotel, attended by son Reg and family and large group of friends. Mr. Forrest (left), smiles happily as Mrs. Forrest reads one of many congratulatory messages. Forrests live at 7562-111 avenue. Couple was married in 1899 in London, England.

STAN MOHER on the Sidewalks of New York

By STAN MOHER
Bulletin Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Have you ever had your hair cut in a Manhattan subway barber shop—say at midnight and by a wielder of the clippers and comb whose command of the English language is confined to three or four words?

You haven't, you say? Then consider yourself fortunate.

It happened to me, just a few hours back.

I had been to the Polo Grounds for a Green Bay-New York Bulldogs football game.

On my return by way of the subway I was about to go up to street level when the open door of a barber shop caught my eye.

This was my chance to get the hair-cut I had been promising myself since July 1.

"You still doing business?" I asked a gent who was busy with a mop, swabbing away the floor.

He grunted an unintelligible assent, deposited his weapon in a corner and motioned to one of the chairs.

First off he parted the mane right down the middle. Next he swept it to either side with several vigorous stabs of his comb. By now I was equipped with a perfect set of blinkers, couldn't see a thing to either side.

This, of course, was an entirely unnecessary precaution in that I no longer run wide at the turns.

About now the man had a fistful of hair in one hand, by way of anchoring me securely, and with the other was busy cutting a trough up one side of my head with a pair of gleaming clippers.

"Hey . . . not too much off the side. Just a trim, you understand." I told him.

He understood—he said—but those clippers kept right on taking their toll. Up one side, down the other, over and back, now the scissors to thin it out (as if nature wasn't taking care of this end of it) . . . "Ouch," there goes part of an ear.

"You can take the bowl off now," I muttered, when I knew it was too late.

He interpreted this as encouragement of some sort and promptly reached for a bottle of green, vile-smelling liquid.

A dash of this and with comb in hand he proceeded to slap the hair—what was left of it—flat to my head.

A grunt or two and a wave of his hand indicated the foul deed was done. "Keep the change," I shouted over my shoulder as I headed upstairs to safety.

And just as I reached Broadway a thought occurred. Hadn't my late friend been mopping the floor when I broached the subject of a hair cut?

What, then, if he was just the janitor after all and no part of a barber?

That would explain everything.

Canadians haven't any objection to fish—except they don't like it nearly as well as they like meat. Federal fisheries department publication says Canadians eat more meat, more poultry and more eggs than they do fish in a ratio of 135.2 pounds of meat per year to 12.2 pounds of fish each. Nor do Canadians intend to change: the ratio has been approximately the same for years.

Truck Explodes, Man Is Injured

About one quarter of the roof and half of one wall of the sheet steel building was blown out. Severe damage was caused to a second wall. The interior of the building was suddenly filled with flames," stated Harry Beisel. "It's a miracle Art wasn't killed."

None of the men could explain the blast. The truck had been used to carry water. It had not been used for gasoline or volatile fuel for 10 years, stated assistant manager Herman Wiggins, 11310-80 street.

It had carried crude oil last week but this is not a volatile fuel and unlikely to cause an explosion. There were no flames known to be near the truck at the time. The tank was empty.

BROTHER KNOCKED DOWN

Harry Beisel, brother of the injured man, was working on another truck when the blast occurred. "I was knocked 10 feet through the air and was unconscious for a few moments," he said. "When I came to, I saw Art lying in the flames. I rushed over to drag him out."

He said the fire department arrived within two-and-a-half minutes of the time the alarm was turned in near midnight.

Three other trucks in the garage were driven to safety by Walter Finnie, a company employe. He was asleep at the time in his home across the street in the AMA camp.

SHOOK THE BUILDING

Bill DeVall, garage employe, said he was taking a shower when the explosion shook the building. "All of a sudden there was a loud blast," he told Bulletin reporters. "I heard things clattering around outside.

"When I got out in the garage, the truck was burning. I got a fire extinguisher and started to fight the flames. Pop Bassani, who works here too, helped me. Then the fire department came and put out the blaze."

Beisel's brother and son, Melvin, had been working along with Du'Vall in the garage all evening. Young Melvin said he had sprayed the truck with paint earlier. They had been welding the truck earlier in the evening but no one was using the arc welder at time of the blast, he said.

Beisel, 42, is married, has eight children. During the war he served in Canada with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps.

Madman Robs Bank of $55

VANCOUVER, Oct. 8.—(CP)—A determined trio, two accountants and a salesman, nabbed a suspected bank bandit today on shopper-crowded Hastings street.

His capture came minutes after a man, simulating a gun, robbed the Imperial Bank of Canada branch at Abbot and Hastings of $55 and sauntered quietly out the door. From holdup to handcuffs, the incident lasted less than four minutes.

Police Inspector George Munger identified the suspect as 35-year-old Lloyd Dahlquist, a fugitive from the provincial mental hospital at Essondale, B.C.

Committed to the institution in April following the $700 robbery of the Bank of Montreal at Nanaimo, B.C., Dahlquist fled last Friday while on leave to visit his mother here.

City prosecutor Gordon Scott said that Dahlquist will be held for investigation until reports of his case history are received. Decision on whether a formal charge will be laid will not be known until then, he said.

HIGHWAYS

Traffic is reported moving through all areas where snow was reported yesterday. Heaviest fall of five inches was reported at Banff, according to reports of the Alberta Motor Association. Three-mile detour is being followed at Fort Saskatchewan around surfacing operations. Road to Redwater is rough.

Regret Killer Found Insane; Prefer He Die

CAMDEN, N.J., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Two survivors of victims of mass killer Howard B. Unruh said today they are sorry the 28-year-old war veteran will be sent to an institution for the criminally insane. They said he should have been sent to the electric chair.

Prosecutor Mitchell H. Cohen announced yesterday that Unruh is insane. He will not be brought to trial on any of the 13 indictments charging him with murder. Unruh walked out of his Camden home last Sept. 6 and killed 13 persons.

City Youth Gets 2 Years

A 20-year-old Edmonton youth was sentenced to two years in Prince Albert penitentiary in supreme court here today for the rape of a young mother.

His 17-year-old friend, found guilty Wednesday of the same assault, was given a year's remand. He will appear for sentence at the Fall Assizes of 1950.

A third youth, aged 18, was acquitted of rape in a second case, involving a 16-year-old girl.

Sentenced to two years is James D. Norman, 20-year-old truck driver of 11341-94 street.

One year's remand was granted Graham Dale Congdon, 17, of 11353- street.

Acquitted in the second case was William Dean, 18, of 7603-75 street.

Newman and Congdon were arrested on the night of May 28 after they criminally assaulted a 32-year-old North Edmonton mother.

Higher Shoe Prices

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—(CP)—Devaluation of the Canadian dollar will mean higher prices for shoes, the Shoe Manufacturers' Association of Canada said today. The increase is credited to higher costs of leather and of shoe machinery imported from United States.

Paraplegic Freed In Wife's Death

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—(AP)—A coroner's jury yesterday termed "accidental" the death of Mrs. Loretta Ring, 26, of Chicago, who was run over in a dark alley by her paraplegic former husband in his specially-equipped automobile.

Mrs. Ring, an expectant mother, died three days after the accident occurred Sept. 10.

Her former husband is James Moore, 21, a victim of multiple sclerosis which left him paralyzed from the waist down.

Senator Dies

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Senator Bert Henry Miller, 70, Democrat from Idaho, died today. He died of a heart attack at his home here.

Drug Possessor Gets One Year

CALGARY, Oct. 8—(CP)—Henry Kneiss, 34, was sentenced to one year at hard labor in Lethbridge jail and fine $200 or an additional three months by Mr. Justice S. J. Shepperd yesterday after a six-man jury had found him guilty of unlawful possession of drugs. The jury was out 35 minutes.

Painters Wage Dispute Remains Deadlocked

Deadlock between Edmonton union painters and Master Painters' Association remains unbroken following rejection today of a suggested basis of settlement of a wage dispute put forth by union Local 1016.

Harry Colnett, of Toronto, general organizer for Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America, announced today Edmonton Master Painters have flatly rejected proposals advanced by the union for settlement of the wage and working dispute.

Colnett said union agreed to drop demand for a 10-cent hourly wage increase awarded union painters by a unanimous decision of a Provincial Board of Arbitration.

WAIVE CLAIM

He said the union had agreed to waive claims to the increase providing Master Painters would sign a new egreement providing for open shop conditions and setting up an examining board as provided under existing provincial labor regulations.

Such regulations would provide strict supervision of apprentices that would lead to greater efficiency throughout the craft, according to organizer Colnett.

He said Master Painters had refused to accept the arbitration board award on grounds there was inefficiency in the craft.

President Harry Wilson of Master Painters' Association announced rejection of union proposals for settlement following joint and separate meetings of employers and employes, Colnett said.

Approximately 200 members of local painters' union 1016 have now been instructed to demand the arbitration board award of 10-cent hourly wage increase from this date on.

At present journeyman painters are receiving $1.25 per hour.

UNION FAIR

Said Organizer Colnett:

"We consider the union has been fair in the offer of settlement with the Edmonton Master Painters. We had been willing to forego the 10-cent hourly wage increase awarded by a Board of arbitration if employers would agree to open shop principles and strict enforcement of apprenticeship regulations. Now that our offer has been turned down we feel we have a right to demand the award of the arbitration board and local members have been instructed to notify employers of this intention."

The Swedish daler coin issued in 1663 was a copper slab measuring 12 by 24 inches and weighing 31 pounds.

Over 300 Shriners Here For Meet And Ceremony

Alberta Shrine members took over the Macdonald hotel here today.

More than 300 of them from all parts of Alberta were registered for the "Thanksgiving ceremonials sponsored by the Edmonton Shrine Club of Al Azhar Temple.

Registration started at 8:30 a.m. and a steady stream of shriners were welcomed by their fellow Edmonton members.

Parade which was to follow the registration was cancelled because of uncertainty of the weather.

Business sessions opened at 9:30 a.m. and continued through the morning.

Ceremonial sessions will be held at the Stock Pavilion, Exhibition Grounds, starting at 2 p.m., and the annual banquet and dance will be held this evening at the Macdonald hotel.

McDougall Men To Hear Mayor

One of the last addresses to be given by Mayor Harry D. Ainlay before his retirement next month will be made Wednesday at McDougall Men's Association.

The meeting, starting at 6:15 p.m., will also elect officers for the new season.

Thousands Travel For Long Holiday

Full Week-End On Tap For City Dwellers

Home is in the thoughts of thousands of Edmontonians today as they plan family reunions for the Thanksgiving holiday Monday.

The October holiday will likely top all other long week-ends for volume of traffic handled out of here by bus, rail, plane and auto.

Railway and airline officials are adding extra coaches and planes to their schedules to accommodate homeward-bound travellers.

Many of the travellers, making short trips to rural Alberta and to small towns for family re-unions, and travelling by bus, account for the unusually large volume of bus travel.

Officials of bus companies here estimate 5,000 people will be handled through the local union bus depot during the holiday week-end.

At least one extra plane will be in service by Trans-Canada Air-lines between Edmonton and Calgary, and it is possible that another may be in use before Monday night.

Extra day coaches are being added to raailway trains in and out of the city, and the Thanksgiving week-end travel volume by rail will be second only to Christmas.

STUDENTS TRAVELLING

Among the travellers leaving the city today are an estimated 700 University of Alberta students enjoying their first holiday of the term.

Many more Edmontonians will leave the city by motor, but unseasonably cold weather is expected to cut this form of travel so some degree.

But besides thousands of Edmonton residents travelling out of town for reunions at their old homes, many others are planning family gatherings in the city.

In many homes turkey will be traditional Thanksgiving fare, despite the current 52 to 55 cents a pound price.

Recent liftings of embargo on American imports of fruit and vegetables will put other Thanksgiving delicacies like pumpkins, cranberries, melons and sweet potatoes on Edmonton tables.

Residents will follow another Thanksgiving tradition by attending special church services and harvest celebrations planned in all local churches Sunday.

CRUSADE RALLY

Giant family prayer crusade rally scheduled for Sunday afternoon at Clarke Stadium will be attended by an estimated 60,000 Roman Catholics.

Downtown theatres will open at midnight Sunday for movie previews, and suburban movie houses plan Monday afternoon matinees as well as their regular evening performances.

Big attendance is expected at regular dances tonight and Monday night, with a midnight dance and Thanksgiving celebration for one local dance hall on Sunday night.

For sportsmen the holiday week-end will see the lid pried off hockey for the season, with a special game between Edmonton Flyers and Spokane Flyers at the Gardens, Monday at 8:30 p.m.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Junior league footballers will battle it out at Clarke Stadium Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3 p.m., with a game between Leafs and EAC's.

But the majority of city sportsmen will likely head for the bush, sloughs and ponds, to put in a full day's shooting Monday, and come back—they hope—with bag limits of migratory and upland birds.

Most business firms and all schools and banks in the city will be closed Monday.

EATERIES OPEN

Kirby's, Royal George; Seven Seas, Pan American, Mandarin, Purple Lantern, King Edward, Corona hotel and main dining room of Macdonald hotel.

Sunday sales of gasoline will be made at the following service stations: Healy Motors, 105 street and Jasper; National Service Station, 96 street and 104 avenue; Hawes Auto and Tractor Service, 9129 111 avenue; Cromdale Service, 8025 118 avenue; Santa Rosa Service, 12130 66 street; Glenview Service, 10103 124 street; Westmount Garage, 11018 127 street; Gateway Service, 5921 104 street and Tom's Auto Service, 8620 99 street.

GAS SERVICE

Those opening on Monday are: Jensen's Tire, 10184 98 street; MacMillan Brothers, 114 street and Jasper; Three Point Service, 9520 Jasper; MacGregor Motors, 8529 118 avenue; Derrybard Service, 122 avenue and Fort Trail; Bill's Service, 73 street and 112 avenue; Green's Garage, 12335 127 avenue; Double Nine Service, 6226 104 street and Low Level Service, 9698 99 street.

Death Ruled Accidental

A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury yesterday afternoon in city police court after probing into the death of Robert Russell of 12038-87 street.

Mr. Russell was instantly killed when the truck in which he was a passenger last July 22 crashed into a girder on the Fort Saskatchewan bridge.

Jury's verdict read: "We are of the opinion the truck was being driven at an excessive rate of speed and whether consumption of intoxicants could be called contributory to the accident is hard to define."

Presiding at the inquest was provincial coroner, Dr. M. M. Cantor.

NEW TRINKET

Sidewalk superintendents along 102 avenue now have a new pre-occupation.

A special augur, fitted to a tractor, is busy digging holes between 99 and 100 streets for trolley cable poles, in preparation for the proposed 102 avenue trolley bus line.

Intriguing feature of the rig is the compressed air drive which turns the augur bit.

Full galleries are assured every time a new hole is sunk.

ON HOLIDAY

Holidaying in Canada James Somerville and Mrs. Somerville, arrived in Edmonton today. Mr. Somerville is managed of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, London, England branch.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Tom Dwan, assistant publisher and advertising manager of the new Bulletin, is back at his home 11912 103 avenue following a spell in Royal Alexandra hospital. Mr. Dwan will convalesce at his home for a while before returning to his desk.

First Parachute Drop Of Season Made In North

Season's first parachute drop of mail and supplies for RCAF personnel based in distant and barren north was made Thursday by a Dakota and crew from 435 Squadron North West Air Command.

The drop was made over Kittygazuit, an RCAF flying-boat base near the Arctic Circle in the Mackenzie Delta district.

NWAC officials said today freezing conditions forced conclusion of summer flying boat supplies and, until an air strip can be established on solid ice, supplies and mail have to be parachuted to the detachment.

Kiwanis Meet Slated Tuesday

Meeting of the Edmonton Kiwanis club, originally announced for Monday noon in the Macdonald, has been changed to Tuesday, same time, same place.

Change was made necessary because of the Thanksgiving holiday, officials announced today.

Banker Sees Growth In Store for Alberta

Greater industrial development in Alberta will flow from the development of the province's resources of natural gas and oil, in the opinion of B. C. Gardner, president of the Bank of Montreal.

Mr. Gardner is here today in the course of a tour of western branches, and is accompanied by L. R. Sinclair, superintendent of Alberta branches, Calgary.

Demand for capital funds will be maintained for municipal improvements and there is considerable municipal financing to be done to carry out projects postponed during the war period, Mr. Gardner said.

He does not expect to see any lowering in interest rates, although in the past few weeks there has been a tendency to easiness in this market.

Commenting on devaluation of the pound, Mr. Gardner said it is too early to determine the effect on Canadian business. It should stimulate sale of British goods in Canada. General feeling is that devaluation will increase cost of production in Britain.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 8.—(CP)—A mother of 17 is pretty good—especially for a cow. Supreme Rugby Echo, a Holstein owned by James Henderson, of Portsmouth, Ont., yesterday gave birth to her 12th calf. The cow holds several records for twice-a-day milking and has produced 219,000 pounds of milk during her lifetime.

POLICE NAB THEFT SUSPECTS

Two men were arrested by city police last night after they admitted stealing a strongbox from a local hotel.

They are Lawrence Aiken and Robert Costello, no address given.

They were discovered by an alert police constable who heard hammering on the grounds of Alex Taylor school on aJasper near 94 street.

Investigation revealed the two men attempting to open a strongbox.

The men admitted breaking and entering the Star hotel and stealing the box containing $4. They will appear in police court late today.

New Mechanized Crime

Phenomenal luck, coupled with astute police direction, has kept Edmonton comparatively free from the major crime her size and wealth would normally attract.

But one day her luck will move out, as it did in the case of the Northern Hardware fire, and the big crime operators will move in.

And everybody will want to know all at once:

"What's wrong with our police protection?"

The trouble with our police protection then will be exactly the same as the trouble with it now—too few constables available to handle a potential crime situation that is packed with dynamite.

The absurd and dangerous fact is that Edmonton has fewer constables per capita in 1949 than it had in the quiet and peaceful year of 1920.

Twenty-nine years ago, this city had the protection of one constable to every 763 of population.

Today, Edmonton has the protection of one police employee to every 913 of population.

And calculating it on the basis of actual uniformed men, who number 106, Edmonton has only one constable to every 1,310 of population.

Mayor Harry D. Ainlay has replied to this criticism by saying that the mechanization of the force has decreased the need for constables.

That is quite true and Mayor Ainlay deserves high credit for bringing prowler cars into the police picture here.

But crime has been mechanized as well as police protection.

If Edmonton's prowler cars have enlarged her capacity to fight crime, so have the resources of science enlarged the capacity of criminals to commit it.

Other factors enter into the situation which render a comparison between police protection in 1920 and in 1949 a frightening one.

Traffic problems have multiplied in those 29 years. Almost every type of crime has materially increased.

And as professional criminals take up their quarters here, as they have already done and will do more freely in the future, it becomes necessary to have not one constable on some beats at nights, but two or three or even four.

Salaries for first class constables should be increased above the ridiculous level of $190 a month. Already this salary, below that paid by Vancouver, New Westminster, Saskatoon, Victoria and Regina, is creating an opportunity for agents from other forces to come in here and try to tempt our men away.

Higher salaries and more men is the only formula to make Edmonton secure against loss through crime.

International Newspaper Boy Week

Everybody knows that any boy who carries or manages a newspaper route secures experience of inestimable value to him in later life.

Of course, some boys do not make a go of it, just as some adults fail to make a success of their jobs.

As a matter of fact, it requires pretty sturdy qualities to enable a boy to make a success of a newspaper route.

The newspaper boy must be punctual. He must be accurate. He must be efficient, neat, mannerly, resourceful.

He must know how to deal with people and please people.

He must be scrupulously honest. He must have a business sense. He must have the courage and enterprise to do an exacting job under all conditions and in all kinds of weather.

If a boy has the rudiments of these qualities, carrying a newspaper route will develop and enlarge them.

Indeed, the business of bringing to the public the history of the world the day it is made is so well known as a developer of character and business sense that thousands of outstanding professional and business men have been glad to admit that it was an experience of tremendous value to them.

Today is International Newspaperboy Day throughout Canada and the United States. Next week is International Newspaperboy Week.

We are glad, on this occasion, to salute the alert and fine young men who distribute the daily newspapers in Edmonton.

And we hope our readers, appreciating the service they are given, will join in that salute.

The Christian Virtue of Humility

There is told in the 14th chapter of St. Luke's Gospel our Lord's parable of the wedding guest who sat at the lowest table and who was told by his host to move up higher.

This parable concludes with the words:

"For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted."

The Christian virtue of humility is perhaps the least understood of all the virtues.

The non-Christian, for instance, sometimes regards the Christian with contempt because of the mistaken notion that Christians are supposed to behave with worm-like docility under any show of force.

Many Christians, too, conceive the injunction to humility as a command involving a fawning attitude of subservience under all circumstances.

Nothing could be further from the real meaning of humility.

Humility has to do less with the relationship between man and man than with the relationship between man and God.

The important thing is that one should be humble before the Almighty, recognizing that all things come from God and that without the gifts of God man would have nothing and be nothing.

Humility is the state of realizing that one can do nothing without the help of God and that for all things of merit which one does, thanks are due to God who does these things through man.

This, of course, was the major virtue of St. Francis of Assisi whose feast day was celebrated last Tuesday and who has been called the finest Christian since our Lord.

It was not the piety, the praying, the fasting or the blamelessness of St. Francis's life that made him great. It was the fact that in all things he rendered thanks to God and the fact of his profound knowledge that he was nothing in himself but only the instrument of God's will.

This is the very essence of Christian humility.

It is, perhaps, the most imperative requirement of the Christian life.

ODDS AND ENDS

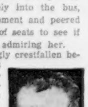
By Harold L. Weir

Character Revealed By Way You Handle Money

The well-dressed young lady climbed leisurely into the bus, posed for a moment and peered down the line of seats to see if everybody was admiring her.

Then, seemingly crestfallen because there was no round of applause, she proceeded to the complicated business of producing her fare.



WEIR

First she opened a handsome alligator bag and poked around in it with that exploratory touch that seems to be essential to the opening of a nice purse.

Next, she fished around and dug out a change receptacle.

She went through it very thoroughly and conscientiously and counted all her quarters and dimes with a contemplative air.

Then she dropped the change purse back into the bag and started dipping into the pockets at the sides thereof.

She gave this up at last and began to go through the pockets of her coat.

Then she went back to the bag, reproduced the change purse, picked out a quarter and bought a strip of tickets.

All this went on while a long line of prospective passengers fumed and shuffled and muttered and waited to get on the bus.

No one killed the young lady which, I think, was a marvelous exhibition of self-restraint.

Sticky Fingers

Now I do not propose to read the character of this charming creature from the way she handled her cash—except to say that she was undoubtedly a foolish and selfish and inordinately vain little slob.

But the incident gave me the idea that character can be read, very neatly and concisely, from the manner in which people deal with money.

I don't refer to their extravagance or parsimony, necessarily, because these habits speak for themselves.

But I do refer to the actual physical way in which they lay physical hands on their actual and physical pounds, shillings and pence.

It is essentially revealing.

Short Sport

Everybody is familiar, for instance, with the habits of the fellow who always gets his salary cheque changed into a single twenty and a roll of ones.

He carefully wraps the twenty around the bundle of ones and flourishes the whole impressive display on every possible occasion to create an illusion of affluence.

This habit, I have observed, goes hand in hand with another habit of smoking other people's cigarettes and borrowing quarters which are never paid back.

Another method of creating this illusion of affluence is to make a purchase and then pull out a bill with a grand gesture and toss it on the counter as though contact with the blessed thing would soil the fingers.

Don't be fooled by this performance.

Wallet School

Another school of thought in this regard leans to the use of the wallet.

The wallet is usually carried in a buttoned-down hip pocket and its production is marked by a tightening of the lips and a slight look of pain which is transformed in an expression of sheer anguish when a coin or a bill is actually produced and handed over the counter.

These are the fellows who hang on tightly to their money until the article they are buying is actually clutched in their other hand.

One expects them to snatch back the money and burst into tears.

The male purse is another version of the wallet school.

It is usually a long leather receptacle with a snap fastener on top and a really earnest devotee of this article can get almost as fine a dramatic effect with it as the girl in the bus with the alligator bag.

There are other more fanciful habits of dealing with money.

There is, for instance, the chap who always keeps a tenspot folded neatly in his shoe as a hold-out from his wife.

There is the bird who slips a bill in the lining of his necktie.

There is the fellow who goes on a bender and carefully places his surplus money in an envelop, addresses it to himself and drops it in a mailbox.

You would be surprised to know who did that one time.

But the erotica of money habits is too profound for this humble corner.

Could you let us have five until payday?

Debt, Homes

Editor, Bulletin.—It was with pleasure and interest I read your article in Friday's paper and the new government scheme for home ownership by paying a small sum as down payment.

The warning you give is timely and it is to be hoped serious consideration will be given by would-be purchasers before being temped beyond one's means to buy a home, desirable though it be.

It cannot be thrift if one goes heavily into debt for anything, but the danger is disaster in the end.

It is a splendid policy to buy nothing unless you can pay for it, and too much credit is not a kindness, but often the reverse.

Homes are very high just now and to buy one may mean a heavy debt and much worry in the end and I am much surprised at the government suggesting such a scheme.

Many thanks for your article.

Tea For Shut-Ins

Editor, Bulletin—This is a letter of thanks to all who did so much to make the Shut-Ins Tea and Sale of Home Cooking the marvellous success it was on Oct. 4.

The thanks go to the various churches, their ministers and ladies' organizations, to the four local radio stations and the two local newspapers, to the merchants and wholesale houses who donated so generously.

To all who donated baked goods for the tea and home cooking sale and lastly, but by no means least, to all my friends who poured tea for us and served at our tea, in fact to all who helped in any way.

I feel that our work certainly will not be in vain, for we have the realization that someone less fortunate than ourselves will benefit by our hard work.

Rubinoff Review

Editor, Bulletin.—Couldn't we have R.W.S. change jobs with J.D.? Either your so called music and cultural critic should see a qualified psychiatrist or an optometrist. In fact as far as I am concerned he could use the services of both these professions. The latter to fit him with bifocals to enable him to see that Rubinoff was presented in a "popular concert." The psychiatrist would assist him to realize that he is suffering from the delusion that he really knows music. Old "middle-brow" J.D. liked Rubinoff's playing and I think he has some supporters from the rest of the "middle-brows" who were not too disappointed to applaud.

I never took a formal music lesson in my life but I still like most forms of music and am not alone in that classification. Ignorant peasant that I am, I should maybe enroll in the kindergarten of our critic's school and become educated so that I can go around hating performers who stay in a mile-deep groove. What gets me is, that Erna Sack has been compared (by your critic) to a close relative of Gravel Gertie and that Lauritz Melchior is likened to Pear-Shape caught gasping his last in dock piling.

I live in a Bulletin-reading household and have admired the stand that your paper takes in civic and national affairs. The "straight from the shoulder" technique should extend to it's cultural reports to give credit where credit is due. It is little less than amazing that the so called "-talents" of this critic should be held in such high esteem by the editorial staff. A civic auditorium can do Edmonton no good when the cultural "bogey-man" scares people away from the box-office.

Your critic must be quite a learned musician in his own right to be able to comment so clearly and discerningly on the performers who have appeared before and evidently pleased Edmonton audiences. Either that or he is a "Snerd" for a "Bergen" who is "agin" an artist he has a personal dislike for. Rubinoff has played in Carnegie Hall and some of America's greatest critics hailed him as a master.

Family Prayer

Editor, Bulletin—A word of sincere appreciation and thanks to The Edmonton Bulletin for their interest and support in the great Family Rosary Crusade. Your articles and pictures are doing much towards implanting in us the seed of active participation in family life, and ultimately towards the true brotherhood of mankind.

However, this seed must be nourished if it is to survive, so keep the family alive for us and let us have more of your timely articles on homelife and family prayer.

Saskatchewan Health Plan

Editor, Bulletin.— There is one letter in your paper of Oct. 5 I would like to comment on. There are a few things that Mr. Hauson, of Regina, forgot to mention in regards to the Saskatchewan Health Plan.

That is although you pay your compulsory insurance you also pay a municipal hospital tax; in our case at a higher mill rate than before SHP went into effect. The reason is that the compulsory insurance can't cover expenses, or so we are told.

The health plan does not include X-rays unless hospitalized first, which our municipal tax did grant. We were paying around $30 yearly for both taxes and only two of us. As insurance is $10 per each adult until $30 maximum is reached; that is if three adults in family insurance is $30; if only two adults and six, eight, or how many minors it's still $30 which is the best point in the plan.

I am not finding fault with plan but like to see facts stated on both sides of question.

MRS. G. L. PEAVEY.

Trivia

"Act Quickly" is the gist of a statement issued by the Board of Trade for the benefit of British exporters who wish to take full advantage of the new dollar-sterling situation. Interviewed by the British Broadcasting Corporation, Mr. Harold Wilson, President of the Board of Trade, said: "I will not say that Britain's exporters will enjoy this advantage indefinitely because a number of European countries have changed their exchange rates, and they also will be in a position to increase their exports in the dollar market. But, undoubtedly, this new change in the exchange rate does provide a very good opportunity to our exporters and the earlier they can get into the market the earlier they can establish themselves, remembering that there will be keen competition from other European countries."

By DE WITT MACKENZIE

Proclamation of the eastern German republic, under Russian domination, is a strategic move by Moscow aimed at winning over the republic recently established in the British-French-American zones of Germany with Bonn as capital.

The Soviet Union thus is intensifying its drive for a unified Germany which can be brought under control of Moscow.

The establishment of this eastern republic doesn't materially alter the status of that part of Germany as a Soviet satellite. The Russians already have communized it heavily and are maintaining control with a big army of Red troops.

What has been done by setting up the republic is to create a symbol of nationalism which the Russians hope will prove attractive to western Germany and bring about a union. That's an idea which, of course, cuts two ways, for the western powers are equally bent on drawing eastern Germany into the Bonn republic. So a hot contest is in prospect.

In any event, what we have been calling the "Russian zone of occupation" now has become a Communist state which takes its place among Moscow's satellites. Thus the Red empire bulges westward into central Europe like a huge fist or battering ram.

Within this bulge lies Berlin, once proud and powerful capital of the Reich and, next to Paris, the most populous of the continental cities.

Berlin not only is the hub of central Europe — the greatest transportation centre of the continent—but it is dear to all Germans as the symbol of the country's former greatness.

The situation is curiously complicated by the fact that, while Berlin lies within the Russian zone, all four powers have areas which are under their control in the city itself. Because of this Britain, France and the United States are said by diplomatic officials in Washington to be considering the idea of adding their Berlin zones to the western German republic.

It is easy to see that warm times are in prospect.

Council Should Pay More Attention

The recent fire report should make most Edmonton citizens stop and think. Not only because of the findings respecting the Fire Department, but because of the possibility that similar conditions are being permitted in other departments.

When you consider the findings, and realize the number of years during which these conditions are reported to have existed, it seems amazing that the elected members of council should have had so little interest that they had never looked into the situation themselves.

Why is it that neither the council members nor the commissioners ever bothered to find out whether or not the earlier report was being implemented.

Even without that earlier report, one would think that any elected head of the city would have been interested enough in the operations of the city to have discovered the existing condition years ago.

Does the fact that the situation was not discovered mean that we elect figureheads who do not bother to examine any phase of the civic departments.

What is the point in having a council and commissioners if they do not find out for themselves what is going on?

Not Fair Play To Become Chief

It is easy to blame the chief of the department.

But why was he not even questioned regularly about these details.

The report blames him for not bringing these matters to the attention of the civic authorities.

But it seems quite possible that after years of the kind of indifference which permitted the condition to escape notice, he might have gained the idea that the less he bothered the council over problems, the better they would like it.

This is not the first time it has appeared that council and the commissioners preferred not to be bothered by problems. While the O'Connor report indicates that the responsibility rested upon the Chief to recommend the things needed to keep his force up to adequate standards, it is not fair to make him shoulder the full blame by any means. Particularly in view of the success other department heads have had when they reported deficiencies.

It is not so long since requests were made for added policemen. Those requests seldom fared very well.

The fire department is not the only force that is short of help and the odds are right now that a request for the number of policemen needed would not be filled.

No One Seems To Have Care

Some department heads know that there is no point in bumping into a stone wall and knowing that expansion will not receive much consideration. It becomes only natural that they do not make the requests but follow the lead of the council in letting sleeping dogs lie just as long as possible.

The city policy for years has been to do as little as possible about anything. Is it any wonder that departmental shortcomings can be found? If the police department were investigated it would probably appear that it was too short of men, equipment, and working space to operate at best efficiency.

How are the other departments operating? No one knows and no one seems to care. Least of all the members of council who still have not done much towards carrying out the plan to have the whole organization examined by experts.

Council members may feel that they are devoting considerable time to do their work as it is. But there is little point in devoting that time if they are not going to be able to keep in touch with the way the departments are working. If they are not prepared to devote enough time they should not accept the position.

On the other hand if they did visit a few of the departments once in awhile and asked a few pertinent questions it would not be necessary for us to experience a disaster in order to learn where the deficiencies were.

Money Agreement With U.K. Needed

Nothing happened at the Washington conference to suggest that there will be any lessening of the three-way crisis involving Britain, the U.S.A. and Canada.

There is greater need than there was before for a direct deal between Canada and Britain.

There need be no unemployment in the woodworking industry of B.C. for years to come, nor any lay-offs or wage cuts. There need be no lack of markets for Nova Scotia or B.C. apples. We could and should restore pig and egg production to wartime levels—all on the assured sales basis such as we then had.

But this requires a big, two-way deal with Britain. Unless the ordinary people all across Canada make it known to their government that we want action on such a deal, things will get worse and worse.

Crux of Trouble

The crux of the trouble between Canada and Britain is that we are trying to sell to Britain three times as much as we are buying back from Britain.

A British government statement says:

"The total gap between the United Kingdom and exports to Canada for the first six months of this year was £57,500,000 ($230,000,000) against over £83,000,000 ($332,000,000) in the same period of last year."

That is just another way of saying that Britain has "closed the gap" in her Canadian balance of trade by about one-third.

That has meant lay-offs in Canadian sawmills, fruits rotting unpicked, because unsold to Britain. It has meant that the men laid off from their jobs have already begun to kick because certain married women still have jobs in the same plants.

In other words, the same dreary process of the thirties has started all over again.

The cure is not to have two or more people fight it out to see which one of them is going to keep the one job. It is to restore the wartime level of production and sales to give everybody a job who wants one.

Emergency Bargain

On a short term basis there is no other way to do that than to make an emergency bargain with Britain. We can agree to accept "blocked sterling" for everything that Britain will buy from Canada.

When you take "blocked sterling" it means that you have to spend that money some place in Britain, or some other part of the world where sterling is the money.

That does not mean, of course, that the Canadians who work in factories producing for Britain would be paid in sterling. They would get their full pay envelopes in good Canadian cash as in wartime. Likewise with our farmers.

The Canadian government would have to keep the balances even by buying more—much more—than we have been doing.

There are vast holdings of Canadian properties still held in Britain (including 92 percent of the preferred shares of the CPR.) We would buy back our own properties. We could make new investments in British lands.

It is as simple as ABC if we really want to do it. But Lord help us if we don't.

"At Britain's side" is the key to averting a big depression in Canada

Smiles

As the weary night-worker—a polite name for a cat burglar—lay half asleep in bed, his wife brought him an early cup of tea.

"Here, drink this," she said: "It'll be the last I'll bring you for a long time."

"Ho," he snorted, "An 'oo says so?"

"The couple o'coppers waitin' in the passage," was her retort.

Aid to Hospital Building Asked

Municipalities Union Seeks Additional Provincial Aid

CALGARY, Oct. 8.—(CP)—After accepting the provincial government's proposal to increase the amount of assistance to public ward hospitalization in the province, the Union of Alberta Municipalities yesterday decided to ask for more.

SANDWICHED between his last duties as commercial counsellor at Stockholm, Sweden, and task of opening Canadian trade commissioner's office in Manila next month is visit to Edmonton for Frederick H. Palmer. As Canada's international trade representative he served at New York, Rotterdam, Milan, Oslo, Bristol, Melbourne and Chungking. He will confer with manufacturing and government officials here Thursday.

Concluding their two-day convention, 122 delegates approved a resolution from the city of Medicine Hat that the organization urge the government to match dominion hospital construction grants without attaching conditions to the provincial grant.

ACCEPTED PROPOSAL

Minutes before they had approved a recommendation from the executive committee that they go on record as accepting the proposal of the government to increase the amount of assistance that now is being given to provide public ward hospitalization.

When the Medicine Hat resolution was being discussed some delegates suggested that, having received increased assistance in hospitalization, the resolution should be withdrawn. However, the Medicine Hat delegates replied that the government's new plan did not include construction grants. The situation was not changed by the proposed scheme, and they felt they should still ask for construction grants.

EDUCATION GRANTS

Earlier, the question of increased grants for education was again discussed.

Ivan Casey, provincial minister of education, told delegates yesterday it did not matter who provided the money for the rising cost of education, the tax-payer still had to foot the bill.

But the convention passed a resolution from the city of Lethbridge calling upon the government to recognize the need for new schools and contribute to capital expenditures and at least 50 per cent of all requisitions of primary and secondary school boards in the entire province.

This followed an address by Jonathan Wheatley, president of the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts, in which he complained that the burden of taxes for education in the rural areas was too heavy.

DANGER SEEN

If Alberta had a poor crop year, he said, rural municipalities would not be able to meet their financial commitments. There was not a sufficiently large field for taxation in the rural municipalities, as their only tax was on real property. The mill-rates were rising yearly through increased education costs.

His main criticism of the Judge Report was the amount recommended in grants for education. It was too small.

"With the tremendous revenues of the province more should be done to help us with education," he said.

Dr. Cross had been able to get $1,300,000 for hospitalization, and he could not see why Mr. Casey could not get similar grants.

Baptist Clerics Trade Pulpits In Big Drive

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—(CP)—Four teams of Baptist speakers will visit 40 Canadian centres during October, in preparation for simultaneous programs of evangelism in every Baptist church across Canada, it was announced here yesterday.

The team from western Canada to visit Ontario will be Rev. J. A. Macrae of Edmonton, and Rev. Gerald M. Ward, Lethbridge.

Rev. P. P. W. Zieman of Hamilton and Rev. J. L. Barlee of Toronto will visit western Canada.

ABSTRACT ART UPSIDE DOWN FOOLS CRITICS

LEEDS, England, Oct. 8.—(AP)—For 11 days artists and critics studied admiringly an abstract painting called "composition" at a local art show.

Today a more observant viewer discovered it was hanging upside down—with the painter's initials topsy turvy in the upper left hand corner.

Artist Alfred Common was pleased to hear it. "I regard it," said he, "as a compliment on the coherence of the design."

Vulcan Mayor To Head UAM

Special to The Bulletin

CALGARY, Oct. 8.—W. D. Allan, Mayor of Vulcan, was elected president of Union of Alberta Municipalities at convention yesterday.

Ald. F. J. Mitchell, Edmonton, is retiring president, and H. C. Leinweber, Medicine Hat, was named first vice-president, with Thomas Wilkes, mayor of Lacombe, second vice-president.

Executive committee includes A. E. F. Cary, Stettler; Dr. A. E. Aikenhead, Calgary; Mayor J. A. Jardine, Lethbridge; Mayor D. C. Foster, Tilley; E. L. Lamont, Peace River; J. E. McLeod, Olds, and H. Lynch-Staunton, Didsbury.

J. H. Galbraith, Ponoka, was returned as secretary-treasurer. T. E. Garside, KC, Edmonton city solicitor, heads the legislative committee as chairman, and J. E. Fitzallen, Vegreville, is Union's news editor.

Next year's meeting will be held in Medicine Hat.

Fortune Given To Charity By Bird-Lover

VICTORIA, B.C., Oct. 8.—(CP)—Jane Wilson, wealthy 72-year-old Victoria spinster who left $275,000 in her will—made known by her estate executors yesterday—had a real passion for birds.

She lived alone in her big, red-carpeted home on select Church Hill. Her main companions were two Macaw parrots worth $150 apiece, six peach-faced love-birds, 19 mask-faced love-birds, 26 budgerigars, four Panama parrots, a Mexican yellowhead parrot and a cockatoo.

She requested "proper provision for the care of my birds" in her will and also gave more than $250,000 of the money to the Red Cross and Victoria hospitals.

More than 1,500 settlements are scattered along Newfoundland's coastline.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Runts Top the Athletes In Beating Hypertension

MONTREAL, Oct. 8.—(CP)—The husky person with a large chest—the athletic type—is more apt to get high blood pressure than his smaller brother usually referred to as puny.

This fact emerged from a panel discussion on hypertension today at the Montreal General Hospital in connection with the annual clinical convention of the Montreal Medico-Chirurgical Society.

A total of 600 doctors from as far as British Columbia are here for clinics at nine Montreal hospitals which opened Monday and will conclude Saturday.

It was explained that high blood pressure is a symptom of a disease process and not a disease itself. Sympathectomy, or surgery for hypertension, was found to bring good results in some selected cases, it was reported.

Relief of "distressing symptoms" such as severe headache in hypertension patients has been found to be brought on following an operation. The operation consists of cutting the nerves along the border of the backbone.

Of patients suffering high blood pressure, 98 per cent fell into the "hidden cause" category, the doctors were told.

High blood pressure usually lasts 15 years and 85 per cent of patients died of heart failure including coronary thrombosis, 10 per cent of apoplexy and five per cent of kidney failure.

Different treatments were reviewed by the panel. Some success was reported through the use of a diet low in salt and heavy in rice.

Impetus was given the rice diet theory when it was realized that in China residents rarely suffered from high blood pressure.

Nearly Everybody Has A Paying Job

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—(CP)—Only 103,000 of a total labor force of 5,121,000 are unemployed, Labor Minister Mitchell yesterday indicated in the Commons. Of those employed, the Dominion government staff comprised about 144,000, made up of 86,000 temporary civil servants and 38,000 permanent employes.

The Babylonians had real estate maps, called cadastrals, in 2,300 B.C.

TENSE EXCITEMENT is promised audience in thrilling story of "House of Strangers" opening Monday in Edmonton's Empress theatre. Starred in the type of role which made him famous is Edward G. Robinson, supported by Richard Conte and luscious Susan Hayward.

Turbulent Story Stresses Realism

New Feature At Empress Uses Foreign Dialogue

For "House of Strangers", a turbulent melodrama with New York's Little Italy colony as a background, which comes to the Empress theatre on Monday, Director Joseph L. Mankiewicz continued the trend toward the use of foreign language dialogue on the screen.

At one time Hollywood producers carefully delected all phrases from the script that were not in English but Darryl F. Zanuck, Twentieth Century-Fox's production chief, broke away from the convention by permitting the French characters in "The Razor's Edge" to speak French.

EXPERIMENT SUCCESS

The experiment was so successful that directors now are using foreign speech whenever the story calls for it. More recently, some of the principal characters in "Treasure of Sierra Madre" spoke only Spanish.

All of the principal characters of "House of Strangers," which tells the exciting story of an Italian immigrant and his family who find fortune as well as heartaches in America, speak some Italian during the course of the film with one exception, Susan Hayward.

Edward G. Robinson, who is an accomplished linguist, and Richard Conte, of Italian parentage, were right at home in their roles as were the principal supporting players recruited from the Italian theatre in New York.

REALISM STRESSED

To further enhance the realism of the picture, Drector Joseph L. Mankiewicz took his cast and crew to New York to film the street scenes on the lower East Side. Suspense and piercing dramatic power were achieved through the vivid characterizations by Robinson, Hayward and Conte and the stellar cast, including Luther Adler, Paul Valentine, Efremy Zimbalist, Jr., Debra Paget, Esther Minciotti, Diana Douglas, Tito Vuolo, Hope Emerson and Albert Morin.

Second feature on the Empress bill is "Submarine Patrol", a thrilling action story starring Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly, Preston Foster, George Bancroft, Slim Summerville, John Carradine and a host of others.

Chilean Currency Rates Are Fixed

SANTIAGO, Oct. 8.—(AP)—A government spokesman said yesterday Chile had decided to fix a rate of 43 pesos to the United States dollar on foreign exchange used for essential imports. The present rate is 25 and 31 pesos.

He added that the exchange rate on non-essential imports will be raised from the current 43 pesos to the U.S. dollar to 60.15.

New Furniture Co. Opens Here Today

North West Wholesale Will Be One of Finest

Ever-expanding Edmonton will have another new business catering to its needs when Northwest Wholesale Furniture Ltd. opens its doors in the near future.

Location of the wholesale furniture company is in the redecorated Pavey Candy Company Building at 9627-105A avenue.

The new concern will serve the needs of retailers, hotels, hospitals, restaurants, industrial concerns, and other job-lot buyers of equipment.

Executive director and sales manager of the business is J. H. Julien. He brings to the position a lifetime of experience in the wholesale furniture field.

Mr. Julien was formerly with the Parkhill Bedding Co. as its Edmonton branch manager.

Before that he was with the Alaska Bedding Company of Calgary.

FULL STOCKS

Full stocks of living room, dining room, bedroom and kitchen furniture will be carrried.

Emphasis has also been placed on supplies of chrome, occasional and office furniture.

Also to be handled by the firm will be electrical equipment; coal, gas and oil heating equipment; coal and gas ranges, and other stock required by retail firms and large commercial businesses.

Secretary-treasurer and office manager for Northwest Wholesale Ltd., will be R. T. Beckloff with 22 years of experience in the furniture business.

Owing to the rush of preparations there has been no time to prepare and publish catalogues, officials stated.

These will be issued and printed as soon as possible, but in the meantime stocks on hand or on order will take care of any immediate orders.

Sales representatives have also been selected and will be covering the area shortly.

Murder Hunt Causes Arrest Of Fourth Youth

WINNIPEG, Oct. 8—(CP)—City detectives said yesterday they have arrested a fourth youth in connection with the mid-September murder of Mrs. Dora Sadova, 65-year-old, cat-loving recluse. Police identified the youth as Joseph Kahlian, 20. No charges have been laid against him.

Others arrested were Leslie Kahlian, 18, a brother of Joseph; Harry Bender, 19, and William Lusanko, 21. They appeared in city police court yesterday on charges of conspiracy to commit robbery and were remanded a week to await reports of analysis of suspected stains on clothing found when they were taken into custody.

Fare Increase Is Insufficient, Winnipeg Told

WINNIPEG, Oct. 8—(CP)—Another transit fare increase besides the one now being requested may be sought by the Winnipeg Electric Company shortly, W. H. Carter, president of the utility, told the city finance committee yesterday.

The company probably will have to ask for the boost unless the city cancels the five-per-cent gross revenue tax now levied against the utility, Mr. Carter said.

The company and city are awaiting the decision of the Manitoba Municipal and Public Utility Board on a fare increase from two tickets for 15 cents to three for a quarter.

50 Motions Readied For Labor Group

LETHBRIDGE, Oct. 8.—(CP)—Some 100 delegates are expected to attend the 29th annual convention of the Alberta Federation of Labor here next week. They will consider a slate of 50 resolutions and elect officers for the coming year.

Herbert Turner of Edmonton, president of the federation, is expected to stand for re-election but a three-way battle is possible for the post of secretary-treasurer, held by Gordon Cushing of Calgary, recently elected to a similar post in the Canadian Congress of Labor.

Edmonton, Calgary and Lethbridge delegates were reported to be considering entering candidates for the post.

Napoleon was promoted to a brigade general after distinguishing himself at the capture of Toulon in 1749, at the age of 24.

Again Disagree On Constitution

OTTAWA, Oct. 8—(CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent reiterated in a letter to Premier Duplessis of Quebec that the federal government believes it need not consult the provinces on constitutional amendments affecting only matters under federal jurisdiction.

Mr. St. Laurent today issued a letter sent Premier Duplessis Sept. 28 in reply to one received from the Quebec Union Nationale leader, Sept. 21.

In his letter Mr. St. Laurent said that historically the federal government regards federal matters in the British North America Act as "statutory provisions capable of being amended by the legislative authority which enacted them."

In Quebec, Premier Duplessis made public today his second letter to Prime Minister St. Laurent in two weeks urging that no amendment to the Canadian constitution be sought until provincial authorities have discussed the question at a federal - provincial conference. His second letter was dated Oct. 5.

Premier Duplessis quoted authorities to support his contrary view that the B.N.A. Act is a contract between federal and provincial authorities and as such is not subject to any amendment without consent of contracting parties.

U.S. Senate Rejects Parity Price Aid

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The senate today rejected a mandatory price support at 90 per cent of parity for cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts as part of the long-range federal farm program. The vote was 45 to 26.

Quick Action Is Urged Against Crime Comics

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—(CP)—The government was urged anew in the Commons tonight to take action to curb sensational crime comic books.

Howard Green (PC—Vancouver-Quadra) spoke during renewed debate on a bill sponsored by E. D. Fulton (PC—Kamloops) that would provide severe penalties for publication, sale and distribution of crime comics. Under the bill, the publishers, distributors and salesmen would be entitled to trial by jury.

ACTION FAVORED

So far in the debate, every member has been in favor of some action against crime comics, Mr. Green said before the debate was adjourned to next week. He believed that the members represented the views of the Canadian people at large.

The government had taken drastic steps in other fields, but it had taken no steps against comics which were character deformers.

Mr. Fulton's bill would be a strong deterrent to publisehrs of "trash" and to importers of such books.

He hoped that Justice Minister Garson, now ill with a cold, would not return to the chamber and suggest that the bill be sent to a commission revising the criminal code. Any such delay would give publishers of crime comics an opportunity to increase publication and to make a circulation drive so as to increase revenue before it was too late.

RED DEER GUNS BRING DOWN MOST CROWS

CALGARY, Oct. 8.—(CP)—Sharp shooting sportsmen from Red Deer brought down 10,730 crows and magpies during the spring and summer months, to win the annual Crow and Magpie Derby, George Spargo, secretary of the Alberta Fish and Game Association told its directors last night.

Calgary sportsmen turned in 10,430 pairs of crow and magpie feet, to place second in the contest. The Calgary association won first place last year.

Instal Dr. Miller

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Dr. James Roscoe Miller was formally installed today as the 12th president of Northwestern University. He succeeded Dr. Franklyn Bliss Snyder, who retired.

"Why Protestants Never Use The Rosary"

You are invited to hear

Rev. J. B. CUNNINGHAM

President, Calgary Branch, The Canadian Protestant League

Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 8 p.m. in the Christian Reformed Church
10952 96 Street

Mr. Cunningham will discuss the following among many other matters during his address:

Why I believe that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was a sinner like ourselves, and in need of God's salvation.

Why I believe that Mary never hears our prayers and is powerless to intercede for us with God.

Why I believe that Jesus Christ is the One Mediator between God and man, so that prayer addressed to any other but God, and offered in any other name but that of Jesus Christ, is never heard in heaven.

Why I believe that Protestants need to return to the old-fashioned family altar, where the Bible was read, and God was addressed in prayer through Jesus Christ, and not through Mary.

This meeting is being held under the auspices of the Edmonton Branch of the Canadian Protestant League.

By DICK BEDDOES

ROSARY CRUSADE RALLY

Clarke Stadium has been jammed for sport spectacles many times in the storied past.

But all other crowds will pale into insignificance beside the gigantic gathering expected to pack the late Joe Clarke's arena tomorrow.

The occasion will be the mammoth rosary crusade rally, with an anticipated attendance of 50,000.

And it will be the most momentous event ever staged locally.

ABOUT FATHER PEYTON

Maybe a commentary on a religious rally should be reserved for the church page.

Maybe.

But I find it hard to believe that such a soul-searching incident should be relegated to any single department.

Not today anyhow, when the world is sorely desperate for spiritual salvation.

That's why I take Time Out today to talk about Father Patrick Peyton, a man possessed with all the enthusiasm of a plunging fullback crashing into the line of scrimmage.

★ ★ ★

FAMILY THEATRE

Father Payton is convinced that prayer is the solution to peace on earth.

In 1947 he founded the non-sectarian radio program "Family Theatre," a weekly presentation which is carried over the facilities of 750 North American stations.

And the slogan of the show is "The family that prays together, stays together."

Stars of stage, screen and radio, of Catholic, non-Catholic and Jewish creeds have appeared on the program.

High-priced help in Hollywood and show business, like Bing Crosby, Gregory Peck, Eddie Cantor, Jack Benny, Ethel Barrymore, John Charles Thomas, Bob Hope, makes the list of those who had taken part in "Family Theatre" look like a Theatrical Who's Who.

★ ★ ★

PRAYER AND FAITH

Inspired by the enthusiastic response from people of all religions and all walks of life, Father Payton has extended his great crusade beyond the radio stations.

He has been travelling about the nation conducting tremendous rallies, telling his message in a simple manner which scarcely reveals his crusading spirit.

For he is a simple man, quiet, yet straightforward.

More than 25,000 people turned out to hear him in Regina a fortnight ago and upwards of 45,000 attended Vancouver's mass rally last week.

These great crowds have been stirred and comforted by the phrase "The family that prays together, stays together."

It is a phrase which conveys the basic factors of all religions . . . prayer and faith.

★ ★ ★

Maybe all this doesn't belong on the sports page.

Maybe.

But it was Frank Lehay, coach of Notre Dame's Fighting Irish football team, who one day recently quoted Alfred, Lord Tennyson to his players:

"More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."

WRESTLING

Bruin Brushes Off Man

VANCOUVER, Oct. 8—(CP)—The rasslin' villain of Arkansas, Tony Ross, had a brief encounter last night with Ginger, the rasslin' champ from Tennessee's Smoky Mountains.

Tony—who is merely Pacific Coast junior heavyweight champion—lasted only two minutes and 46 seconds against tomato-eating Ginger.

Ginger wore a mask and had his toenails manicured just for the big moment before 2,700 cheering fans.

And what's more, last night's episode was Ginger's 256th win in the grunt and groan game.

"They sure think up the screwiest things to do," said SPCA secretary-treasurer David Ricardo.

FAST YANKEE fielding foiled best Brooklyn chance to score in World Series opener, and here is typical incident in second inning, as New York stopped potential Dodger scoring. Gil Hodges of Brooklyn has grounded to Yankee pitcher Allie Reynolds (solid line) who tossed to second-baseman Gerry Coleman (dotted line) to catch Carl Furillo. Coleman then relayed to Tommy Henrich on first to complete double play.

YANKS LEAD 2-1

Big John Mize In Hero's Role

By Gayle Talbot

BROOKLYN, Oct. 8—(AP)—Big Johnny Mize came back to haunt the National league yesterday.

A Yankee only since Aug. 22, the 36-year-old veteran smashed a two-run pinch single off the right wall at Ebbets Field to spark a three-run rally in the ninth inning that just nipped the homerblasting Brooklyns, 4-3, in the third game of the World Series.

JOHNNY MIZE
. . . Had payoff punch.

The clubs were knotted 1-1 in another pitchers' duel when large John unloaded his big blow. Another Yankee run crossed before the Brooks recovered. It was just as well, for both Luis Olmo and Roy Campanella smashed four baggers before Joe (Fireman) Page erased a pinch-hitter for the final out.

BRANCA TREMENDOUS

The American Leaguers were a badly-frustrated crew up to the time Mize delivered. His was only the fourth hit off Ralph Branca, who pitched a tremendous game for 8 2/3 innings.

Page, who relieved Tommy Byrne in the fourth inning, throttled the Dodgers on one hit before Olmo and Campanella jumped him.

Joe appeared jittery and the crowd of 32,788 was yelling when bulky Bruce Edwards went up to hit for the pitcher after Campanella's blast reduced the Yankees' margin to a single run. But the great relief chucker set Edwards down with his second strikeout of the inning to end the game.

The American Leaguers had scored their lone run in the third inning.

In the fateful ninth, Branca forced Joe DiMaggio to pop foul for the second out but Bobby Brown came through with a sharp single into right to send Yogi to second. Branca walked Gene Woodling to fill the bases and the stage was set for Mize's entrance.

HAD 4-1 LEAD

Mize bounced a 2-1 pitch off the fence at the 300-foot mark to send Berra and Brown dashing home.

Jack Banta came on to pitch to Gerry Coleman and was greeted by a single into centre to put the Yanks in front 4-1.

Olmo laid into a fast ball and parked it in the lower deck after one was out in the ninth

After Duke Snider whiffed, Campanella sent a sky-high fly to left which bounced into the stands.

Edwards, a dangerous righthand hitter, was called out on strikes.

THIS WAS BLOW that broke up world series opener and gave New York Yankees dramatic 1-0 win over Brooklyn Dodgers. At top, Tommy Henrich is caught by Associated Press camera following through on his swing which sent ball out of park in the ninth inning for the game's only run. At bottom ball goes into hands of fan (arrow) 10 rows up in stands as Brooklyn right fielder Carl Furillo watches, then sags dejectedly.

Bulletin's Casual Choices Pick Football Winners

By Dick Beddoes

As the heaviest stockholder in the Bulletin's Casual Choices, Inc., (196 pounds, with socks on), I would like to recommend the weekly gridiron selections of this firm to you good readers who rob the grocery money to make the odd wager.

Last week, first time Bulletin's Casual Choices, Inc., did business, the organization had a perfect batting average.

It made five choices, and was right on every count.

The accuracy of the firm's selections is directly attributed to a hard-working staff which dabbles in Hindu philosophy, pathogenic psychology, and the theorem of Pythagoras.

It ain't easy.

This week the staff worked overtime. For this is a heavy week-end, some 12 games being played in Canada's three big football unions.

But after a feed of Thanksgiving turkey the selections were tabulated as follows:

WESTERN CONFERENCE

Saturday — Calgary Stampeders over Regina Roughriders; Edmonton Eskimos over Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

Monday — Calgary Stampeders over Winnipeg Blue Bombers; Edmonton Eskimos over Regina Roughriders.

ONTARIO UNION

Saturday—Hamilton Tigers over Windsor Rockets; Sarnia Imperials over Toronto Balmy Beach.

Monday—Windsor Rockets over Toronto Balmy Beach; Hamilton Tigers over Sarnia Imperials.

BIG FOUR

Saturday—Ottawa Rough Riders over Montreal Alouettes; Toronto Argonauts over Hamilton Wildcats.

Sunday — Montreal Alouettes over Ottawa Rough Riders.

Monday—Toronto Argonauts over Hamilton Wildcats.

The fairy godmother, bless her lovin' soul, expects this to be a glad week-end for Edmonton Eskimos.

It better be.

If they don't get by both Regina and Winnipeg they might as well pack up any hopes they have of finishing in the two-team playoff.

Calgary coach Les Lear has cried all week about the sorry condition of the Dominion champion Stampeders.

They've only won seven straight games, is all.

BUT RED IRISH HAS GOUT

Owner Demands Return Of Eskimos' Mascot

Red Irish, Edmonton Eskimo mascot, bounced back into the news last night.

His owner, one G. E. Weiner of Calgary and Winnipeg, wants him back right away—quick.

The Irish setter, who brought Eskimo guard Red Stokes home one night on the last trip to Winnipeg, was signed as team mascot recently.

Manager Al Anderson figured that if the big red dog showed so much concern for a player he might be used to advantage.

So Anderson signed the pooch and turned him over to the Bulletin sport staff for safekeeping.

Red Irish would be in Winnipeg with the team today except for one thing: he's got the gout.

And as any sympathetic dog lover knows you can't send a hound gallivanting around the country when he's laid up with gout.

Not on your life.

There is some suspicion that Red picked up the afflication recently due to an accident suffered while working.

Since sports editor Stan Moher has been away covering the world Series, Red has been filling in for him on the sports beat.

He was doing a pretty good job too, although he complained that editing copy gave him eyestrain.

Anyhow, the other night he jammed his right foot into the console of his typewriter with such force that gout resulted.

Very painful, too, he says.

When informed last night that Moher would be home soon, and that he (Red) would soon re-join Weiner, the six-months old setter said:

"Bow-wow-wow."

World Series Dot-Dashes

Reynolds Recalls Brief Stay Here 3 Years Ago

By Stan Moher
Bulletin Sports Editor

EBBETS FIELD, Oct. 7—Oddly enough, while all three Brooklyn home-run drives would have been outs in Yankee Stadium, Mize's two-run single down the right-field line in the ninth inning yesterday would have gone for a homer in the House that Ruth built.

High screen that serves to make up for the fact that it's only 296 feet to the corner in right at Ebbets Field . . . Preacher Roe, hero of Dodgers' 1-0 win on Thursday, was one of the last of the Brooklyns to leave when it was over. "How's the hand 'Preach'?" a wild-eyed Dodger rooter wanted to know. Roe motioned that it felt okay.

★ ★ ★

National League supporters were trying to steal some solace from the fact that Mize had been a National League star for 10 seasons and more until Yankees purchased him from New York Giants six weeks ago. But as one Yank supporter put it: "Whaddya think 'we' bought him for. To look at four walls?"

ADD FAMOUS QUOTES:

Berra — to Joe DiMaggio, another basher who isn't bashing: "It's goin' t'be our day tomorrow.

DiMaggio: "We're winning, aren't we?"

★ ★ ★

Robinson's play on Henrich's grounder in the ninth inning provided the fielding feature of the series so far. The Dodger second-sacker was off like a cat with the crack of the bat to one-hand the ball and then throw Henrich out by two-three strides. DiMaggio was the first to reach for Mize's hand when the big fellow came back to the bench after his great pinch effort for Cliff Mapes . . .

★ ★ ★

Phil Rizzuto, Yank stortstop, tied a World Series record by failing to have a chance in the field. No one ever has had fewer than no chances . . . At the same time Dodgers' three homers were as many as Brooklyn teams had hit all told in four previous W.S. Of course 'Babe' Herman wasn't with the Dodgers in any of their fall-classics . . .

Brown and Coleman are pronounced hitters, grabbing the bat a good three or four inches up the handle . . . Page is a deliberate workman, frequently turning his back to the anxious hitter, ostensibly to check his outfield. As well he hitches away at his pants, fiddles with the peak of his cap, and if in a real tough spot is likely to reach into a back pocket for a bright crimson handkerchief with which he swabs away at his forehead and neck.

Campanella had quite a time getting to a number of the Branca heaves when the Dodger righthander's control deserted him in the last frame . . . In the early innings Dodger rooters pleaded with the scatter-arm Berra to "throw the ball, 'Circus Man' . . . Just throw it anywhere." . . .

★ ★ ★

Significantly Branca sports a big '13' on his back. No one wears this number on the Yankees. Neither does any Yank wear a '3' Ruth's old number. This has been retired . . . Mapes and Byrne worked out the hit-and-run manoeuvre to perfection leading up to Yanks' first run in the third . . . As Byrne began to weaken in the fourth both Page and Fred Sanford, a righthander who cost Yankees $100,000 as a purchase from St. Louis Browns, warmed up in the bull-pen . . .

★ ★ ★

"Remember Edmonton?", Allie Reynolds, who blanked Dodgers 1-0 in the opening game, repeated a question. "Why sure I remember Edmonton. That's where I was traded." . . . It was while in Edmonton with a barnstorming major league crew in 1946 that Reynolds got word he had been traded by Cleveland Indians to the Yankees.

WELLAND, Ont., Oct. 8—(CP)—Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League dropped their second exhibition game of a three-game series to the parent Toronto Maple Leafs here last night by a 5-2 score.

Solves Problem

N. Y. Rangers Sign Regina's Gus Kyle

LAKE PACID, N.Y., Oct. 8 —(CP)—New York Rangers have signed Gus Kyle, rugged defenceman from Regina Capitals, manager Frank Boucher announced today at the Rangers' training camp here.

"He's what we've been looking for for a long time," said Boucher of the six- foot, 200-pound Kyle. "This leaves our defence situation pretty well solved."

Kyle, a native of Dysart, Sask., played the last two seasons with the Caps, following a hitch with the RCMP. Earlier he had played junior hockey with Notre Dame Hounds and senior hockey with New York Rovers of the Eastern United States amateur league.

Kyle joins a rearguard including Allan Stanley, starry youngster bought for a reported $70,000 from Providence Reds last year, Wally Stanowski, Frank Eddolls, Frank Shero and Pat Egan.

STAN Moher ON SPORT

'Dose Dodgers Is Bums!'

BROOKLYN, Oct. 8—Excuse it, please!

Thus ran a sign in a Brooklyn restaurant, not many minutes after Joe Page had finished his shower in the Yankee dressing room at Ebbets Field here yesterday afternoon.

All over the borough other signs were being hastily snatched from windows and more points of vantage. Gay signs that had gone up with a great flourish when the Dodgers had won the National League flag . . . signs that read 'Well done, Dodgers,' 'Welcome to our Dodgers,' 'The Bums is great,' and so on.

"I'll put dis one up agin when dose Dodgers take care of the Yankees like they should," one red-necked eating-house proprietor told a group of the curious. "That Page is a bum. Hah! That DiMaggio's no better. Hah! But are dose Dodgers doin' anythin' about it? They certainly are not!"

Ball-players — especially the personnel of a losing Dodger team—live dangerously in Brooklyn.

Les Edwards and Ralph Morgan, managers of the Cubs and Esks in the Big Four loop back home, will appreciate the position Dodgers' headman Burt Shotton found himself in when yesterday's game was over.

The second-guessers had the heavy knock on him —but good.

Shotton On The Griddle

"Whyn't he take Branca outa there sooner? Why didn't Branca keep that ball away from Mize? How come the Bums don't score in the fourth innin' when they had three on bases and only one out?"

There was a lot of this.

Plain fact of the matter is that the Dodger attack has been bogging down when a hit in the right place would mean a run or two.

Page, of course, stopped the Brooklyns cold in that fourth-inning. A big, strong, confident-looking workman, he strode in from the bullpen, as he had done so often previously this season, and simply took charge.

Probably it was just as well for Yankees' chances that the big fellow didn't have to go any farther than he did. He was obviously weary as Luis Olmo, the repatriate from the Mexican League, and Roy Campanella tagged him for a pair of ninth inning homers.

As he pointed out later: "You gotta pitch down in this park, with those fences so close. My control wasn't just the best about then. I was gettin' tired."

But he also intimated that he had grown a trifle careless, what with that big 4-1 lead suddenly dropped in his lap. Certainly he tore into pinch-hitter Bruce Edwards to kayo that worthy for the final out.

★ ★ ★ ★

'Always Has Hit Pretty Good'

Mize, of course, was the offensive stickout. Easily the best looking hitter in the series (DiMaggio, really a sick man, has been a pathetic figure). Mize tagged a fastball to drive in the two runs that broke the ball game wide open. The wallop also did a thing or two to Ralph Brancas' heart.

Later someone asked Campanella "If Mize always had hit Branca pretty good? Before you could say Eddie 'Miskis,' as they say it in Ebbets Field, the stocky Dodger receiver was right back with "Man, that Mize always has hit everybody pretty good."

Branca was a great hurler until that fateful last inning. Tommy Byrne, who started for the victorious Yankees, looked like a good one the first time around the Brooklyn batting order. However, that's hardly long enough.

It's amazing how the complexion of a series can change. Dodgers appeared to have their rivals from across the East River on the run after squaring matters at a game apiece by winning at Yankee Stadium Thursday.

Now the brogan is on the other set of bunions.

Biggest fear in the Dodger camp is that DiMaggio, known as 'The Great Joe D.' (Said with a curl of the lip) to Ebbetts Field rooters, will suddenly break loose.

Right now he's had one scratch hit in 12 trips.

GEARY FIGHTS EDDY AT PAVILION FRIDAY

Benny Geary continues his comeback appearances in the boxing ring next Friday night, facing Irish Bill Eddy from Flint, Michigan.

Geary, former western Canadian welterweight champion, is grooming himself for a shot at Jimmy Nolan, current titleholder. Nolan still won't come to terms with local promoter Jack Berry for the proposed duel.

Eddy claims to have fought in Madison Square Gardens and has 70 pro fights under his belt. He holds a decision over Harold (Baby-Face) Jones, who recently extended Enrico Bolanos, rated fourth by Ring Magazine among the world's welters.

First half of a double semi-windup features Edmonton's Billy Carter and Ponce De Leon from Spokane.

Copeman Retains Scoring Leadership

Varsity-Garneau's Bob Copeman failed to pick up a single point last night, but he still continues to lead the high school football league's point-getters with 16.

In second slot is Doug Howko and Norm Klingspoon from Eastwood and Scona's Orest Stagryn, each with 10. Westglen's Ernie Stogryn is all by himself in third place with eight, while Olson from St. Joe's has six.

MILLIARD RETURNS TO STAMPEDERS

CALGARY, Oct. 8.—(CP)—Johnny Milliard, right-winger with Calgary Stampeders last year, will rejoin the club for the 1949-50 Western Canada Hockey League season, club officials said today.

Milliard, who is at the Valleyfield Braves hockey camp in Quebec has been unable to catch on with that club because of his inability to obtain a transfer. He has wired the Stampeder club that he will be glad to return.

Last year the 23-year-old winger played on a line with Dunc Grant and Ken Hunter.

30 MINUTES PER GAME

'Old' Lou Mogul Still Tackling

By DICK BEDDOES

When they get around to calling someone the 'grand old man' on the Eskimo football team the most likely recipient of that hackneyed moniker will be Lou Mogul.

There will be those who will argue that Touchdown Club president Dr. M. M. Dunsworth should receive the nickname.

But he isn't playing anymore. And Mogul is.

Not that Mogul is in Dr. Dunsworth's age group. Not by any forging of birth dates.

But balding Lou is the oldest playing Eskimo by several years, and at 38 (so he says) he does'nt figure to hang around much longer in the tough Western Conference.

While he does, though, coach Annis Stukus will put him to work at tackle. So long as Eskimos are on the attack Mogul's long, angular frame will be barging into enemy territory.

If things work out according to the Stukus plan that means Mogul can expect to see 30 minutes action per game.

There was a time when Mogul was a 60-minute man. That would be in the days when Winnipeg Blue Bombers were really great, in 1935 and 1939 and 1941 when they were bringing the Grey Cup west.

Mogul wasn't alone on those storied blue-and-gold clubs. There were such streamlined backs as Fritzie Hanson, George Stevenson and Andy Bieber following a road paved by the blocks laid by Bert Oja and Mel Wilson and Eddie Kushner . . . and Mogul.

Lou was a soccer player until he was 23. Then, in 1933, he turned to football to become all-Canadian tackle on five different occasions and the most respected man at his position for more than a decade.

But time flies and changes. And today Mogul is the veteran on a young (for the most part) Eskimo football club.

On their road trips he will hold forth about the Bombers of old, killing time as the Eskimo special rolls between Edmonton and Winnipeg, and Winnipeg and Regina, telling yarns about a never-to-be-forgotten team.

FRITZ LOSES . . . TWICE

One of his favorite tales concerns Bob Fritz, former Winnipeg and Edmonton coach. In 1937 the Bombers were on their way east to play Toronto Argonauts for the Dominion championship.

As the train steamed out of Winnipeg the inevitable crap game started. And before they had reached the 'Peg outskirts, playing coach Fritz was down $150.

That was the end of the crap game . . . and of Fritz's good humor. Robert still hadn't said a word to anyone when Bombers stepped onto Varsity Stadium turf to battle the Argos.

Bombers lost that day . . . 4-3.

Cardston Battler Drops Decision In Games Trials

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Oct. 8—(CP)—A slim crowd of about 1000 last night were on hand for the second 16 bouts of the combined Dominion Boxing Championships and British Empire Trials. Sixteen of the original 53 contestants were eliminated Thursday night when the three-day affair opened.

The featherweight clash between Keith Nelson, 126, Cardston, Alta., and Frankie White, 125½, Winnipeg, was a crowd-pleaser, with boys slugging from the bell. White kept a short right pecking at Nelson throughout the first round but the lone Alberta entry countered with hard rights to the head.

The second was White's round as he connected with hard mid-section punches after his nose started to bleed and his mouthpiece fell out. White gained his edge by getting the better of the exchanges in the infighting.

WINS ON FOUL

In the lightweight class, 134¼-pound Norm Thompson of Toronto won on a foul at 2:58 of the second round over Winnipeg's Tuppy Tyler, 134½. Thompson was well out in front before referee Spence stepped in and called the bout on the basis of three low blows.

In a welterweight bout Kevin O'Hanley, 144, Chilliwack, B.C., was no match for Maurice O'Brien of Sudbury, who had his opponent on the ropes soon after the opening bell. At the 1:45 Mark O'Brien sent a looping right to O'Hanley's head and the B.C. boy went down for the count.

Middleweight Billy Pinkus, 152, Winnipeg, finished his bout against Leo Bertuzzi, 157¾, Hamilton, with a short left to the jaw. Bertuzzi was down for a nine count in the opening round but rallied and was on even terms when the knockout came.

Lightweight champion Eddie Haddad of Esquimalt, B. C., successfully defended his crown by defeating Toronto's Norm Thompson in a bout that had the fans roaring their disapproval.

Haddad, at 134, had all he could do to fend off Thompson in the first two rounds, but found the range in the third and piled up a wide margin.

CEMENTING relations between Sweden and Canada is sometimes tough job, but with The Swedish Angel, above, touring country problem is easily solved. Ted Tourtas meets Angel in semi-windup on Tuesday night wrestling card at Stock Pavilion. Headlining evening's entertainment will be Cardiff Giant facing localite Stu Hart in best-of-three falls. Special event has Pedro Ortega meeting Bibber McCoy.

Leafs Battle EAC's

An exhibition junior football game will be played at Clarke Stadium Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock between Maple Leafs and EAC.

NEW YORK, (Sunnyside Garden)—(UP)—Andy De Paul, 158, Cliffside, N.J., outpointed Tommy Engelhardt, 159¼, Astoria, N.Y (8).

Spokane Hockeyists Stop Calgary 5-2

CALGARY, Oct. 8—(CP)—Spokane Flyers, United States senior hockey champions last season, last night scored a 5-2 decision over Calgary Stampeders in a hard-fought exhibition game.

Flyers, showing more finish around the net and better timing in their plays, went ahead 1-0 in the first period and never were headed although Stamps held the greater share of the play.

FALL RIVER, Mass. — (UP) — Timothy (Buddy) Hayes, 130, Boston, outpointed Clint Miller, 127¾, Elizabeth, N.J., (10).

EDDIE CUTTS

Eddie Cutts Finds Puck Camp Rugged

By John McLean

Eddie Cutts, the Edmonton boy who came home to play hockey, is "finding it tough" breaking into the game again.

Rugged Eddie had been away from the game for two years. When he fell short of making the Toronto Maple Leafs he went into retirement, replacing his skates and stick with school books.

Eddie graduated last spring from Edmonton College. A budding car salesman now, he's donned the skates again on behalf of Edmonton Flyers.

duty for the Montreal Royals, always top-notch contender for the Memorial Cup.

Then, in 1945-46, he played with the strong Oshawa Generals. That was his last year as a junior puckster.

CALGARY, Columbia junior football playoff staged this year it was announced today by Watson Hook, an executive member of the Calgary junior football league. Mr. Hook and other Calgary officials met Thursday with Ewart Blossom, secretary of the Vancouver Big Four league and drew up the playoff arrangements.

Opening game of the home and home total-point series would be in Alberta—either Calgary or Edmonton depending on which team wins the sudden death Alberta final in Edmonton Oct. 16—with the Vancouver contest slated Nov. 5. Winner will advance into the western final against the Saskatchewan-Manitoba victor.

BOARDING PLANE for Winnipeg are Pete King, left, and Harry Hobbs, Eskimo football stars. They did not make train trip with remainder of club Thursday night but will be in action tonight when Esks play Bombers at Osborne Stadium.

CANADIANS' HOCKEY SCHOOL CONTINUES

Over 50 players turned out for the first day of the two-day Canadian hockey school at the Gardens last night.

The school winds up today with a four-hour session from 4 to 8 p.m. All boys of junior or juvenile age are invited to attend the camp.

Perhaps the top three in last night's drill were Bill Kirstine, Babe McAvoy, and Bob Mawhinney. McAvoy appeared particularly sharp, owing to having attended the Detroit Red Wings' camp in Saskatoon last month.

Esks Confident Of Winnipeg Win

Edmonton Eskimos rolled into Winnipeg last night confident that they would win tonight's Western Conference football game with the lowly Blue Bombers.

Three players left Edmonton by air last night to join their mates who departed on the prairie jaunt by train Thursday. The three—ends Don Loucks and Pete King, and halfback Harry Hobbs—arrived in Winnipeg early this morning

Coach Annis Stukus figures Winnipeg to make it rough for Eskimos tonight. For Blue Bombers feel that Edmonton is the one team in the conference which they can overhaul.

And tonight before 6,000 hometown fans they'll be doing their darndest.

Meanwhile, Eskimos are looking forward to what could be the "big" one against the Roughriders in Regina Monday. If they can halt the 'Riders on this occasion, Stukus feels second place is as good as won by the Eskimos.

Stukus is counting in no small way on having Calgary soften up the Reginans today so that they might be a little easier for the Eskimos to cope with on Thanksgiving day.

Starting lineup for Eskimos tonight will be:

Quarterback, Bill Stukus; halfbacks, Reg Clarkson and Chuck Fenenboch; fullback, Pat West; flying wing, Frank Hickey.

Centre, Andy Marefos; guards, Steve Paproski and Ken Moore; tackles, Lou Mogul and Bill Radovich; ends, Jim Macrae and Harry Bunting.

HS Standings

In the high school football league Scona, St. Joseph's and Garneau-University lead with two wins apiece. Victoria Composite, Westglen and Eastwood follow with a single game.

On Friday, October 28, the two top teams will play off and the Provincial finals are slated for November 5.

The Men of The Year

. . . and of the years to come . . .

1949 Bulletin Carrier Fastball League Champions

Today, the first day of National Newspaper Week, has been set aside to pay homage to the greatest "Little Business Man" in the world . . . your newspaper boy. That little fellow who so courageously, through storm, biting cold or calm, delivers to your door every evening your daily newspaper.

The Edmonton Bulletin newspaper boys, pictured above, are tomorrow's leaders. They are building a better future for themselves as well as for their community. They are earning while they are learning better citizenship. Since he works for it, he knows the value of money, thereby he is taught THRIFT. HE IS DEPENDABLE. He knows that every night you are waiting for your Bulletin at a certain time and he is there. (He may occasionally miss a customer —that's only human—but if he does he will gladly deliver his "miss" when called.)

HE IS COURTEOUS. He has learned that courtesy is the keystone of business relationship and pleasant living. HE IS A SCHOLAR. He discovers the extra value of education by doing, as well as learning. He is constantly improving his mind by the contacts he makes outside his regular school work. HE IS A LEADER. His job is a daily lesson in initiative and self-sufficiency. The delivery of his route, whatever the weather, is his sole responsibility when he buys his papers at the newspaper office. HE IS A SALESMAN. He knows that the more customers he gets, the more he will add to his weekly earnings . . . and he knows all the qualities necessary to getting new patrons.

AND HE IS A BUSINESS MAN. He buys his papers outright at the newspaper office for a certain amount per paper. He sells them to his customers at a slightly increased price. The difference is his profit. When a customer fails to pay him, THE BOY LOSES, for he has his weekly obligation to meet. When the customer gets a few weeks behind, the boy must advance the money for that customer's paper. That's why he urges his customers to pay regularly.

Yes, This Is Your Newspaperboy—

Symphony Week Slated October 17

Full Week of Music In Store for Edmontonians

Six full days of music are being planned for Edmonton's first Symphony Week.

Mayor Harry Ainlay will officially declare Oct. 17 to 22 Symphony Week on Tuesday.

The week of films and musical events is being sponsored jointly by the Edmonton Philharmonic Society and the department of extension of the University.

Drive to sell membership tickets for this season's Philharmonic concerts will be held in conjunction with the Symphony Week.

On every day of the week except Wednesday, Oct. 19, musical films will be shown from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in the Empire Room of the Hudson's Bay Co. store; and every afternoon, films and city musicians will provide musical entertainment in the Masonic Temple from 2 to 4 p.m.

FULL PROGRAM

Exception on the timetable is Wednesday afternoon, when full program by city artists will be presented in the Public Library from 3 to 4 p.m., and there will be no films.

Week of activities will terminate at noon Saturday, Oct. 22.

Special programs outlining each day's films and live-talent program are being printed and will be available late next week at the Hudson's Bay Co. store and at downtown city music stores.

Admission is free to all events.

Films will show such famous soloists and groups as the London Symphony and Sir Malcolm Sargent, Arturo Toscanini and the NBC Symphony and chorus of Westminster College, Sir Ernest MacMillan and the Toronto Symphony, famed 'cellist Gregor Piatigorsky, the Moscow Symphony with Dmitri Shostakovich playing [illegible] "Golden Mountains" [illegible] renowned violinist Jacques Thibaud, pianist Myra Hess playing the first movement of Beethoven's Sonata in F Minor (the Appassionata), and many others.

CITY TALENT

City musicians who will perform are: Walter Holowach, violinist, Monday afternoon; Margaret Anne Brine, pianist, Edgar Williams, violinist; and cello quartet of Harry Kirk, Constance Patzig, Harcourt Smith, and H. C. Sagar; all on Wednesday afternoon.

Instrumental trio of violinist Ronald Shean, cellist Constance Patzig, and pianist Vera Shean on Thursday afternoon.

RCAF BAND OUT

Cello solos by Harcourt Smith on Friday afternoon.

Woodwind quintet of RCAF band members was scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, but the RCAF band will be going out of town, and another group will be picked for that day.

Y's Men Open Big Conclave Here Today

Licenses Issued For 1949 Now Nearing '48 Total

Retail business is booming in Alberta.

This is indicated by the number of licenses issued by the department of industries and labor to retail concerns in the province. Hon. Dr. J. L. Robinson, minister of the department, released the figure today.

Revenue from retail licenses is already nearly $1,500 more than that derived from the same source last year.

During the 12 months of 1948 licenses were issued to 11,637 retail business houses, and this year, during the first nine months almost as many—[illegible] were issued.

COST $25,279

Revenue from licenses jumped from $24,663 for the first nine months of 1948 to $25,279 for the corresponding period this year. A total of 489 licenses were issued during the month of September.

Revenue from tourist-camp licenses also showed an increase over last year.

During the first nine months of 1948 it was $1,038. This year, for the corresponding period, revenue is $1,112.

During 1948, 123 tourist camp licenses were issued, compared to 90 during the first nine months of the current year.

Junk dealers are also on the increase with 23 licenses issued between January and September this year compared to 22 for the whole of 1948.

AUTO DEALERS

Revenue from automotive dealer licenses increased from $21,674 during the 12 months of 1948 to $22,583 for the first nine months of 1949.

Sale of licenses to restaurants and sawmills showed slight increases in revenue compared to those issued last year.

Number of trade schools, wholesale houses, dry cleaners, flour and feed concerns and packing plants decreased this year compared to last year, but over-all revenue from all sales of licenses increased by $19,585, Dr. Robinson said.

on the TOWN

By J. D.

Current campaign in Edmonton and elsewhere to restore family worship emphasizes a growing concern by the clergy of all denominations over tendency of the modern home to disintegrate.

I read recently about a prominent American priest who denounced the automobile as one of the chief disintegrators of the home.

The cleric said the automobile is more and more taking people away from their homes, making the evening family circle practically a thing of the past.

I don't own an automobile so I don't feel qualified to pass judgment on the alleged home-wrecking proclivities of the modern juggernaut. But I do know that families don't stay home in the evenings as much as they did 20 or 30 years ago.

For instance, what has become of that enjoyable old custom of holding a sing-song in the front parlor?

I can remember when members of our family used to spend the whole evening singing the good old songs.

THAT WAS SINGING

I'm absolutely certain that "Down By the Old Millstream" and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart", never sounded so beautiful as in those family sing-songs.

Sometimes we used to sing hymns. Neighbors would drop in often and join in the fun.

This entertainment didn't cost anybody a cent, unless you considered cost of the lunch and coffee that brought the "concerts" to a close. Yes, the best things in life are free.

Then there were those house parties, where we danced to piano music or the latest phonograph jazz records.

Quite a difference between those parties and the modern party where everybody tries to see how soused he or she can get.

Now we seem to have entered an age in which people buy packaged entertainment. There are too many ready-made games and not a sufficient number of skilled players; too many spectators and not sufficient participants.

RADIO MUSCLES IN

Radio is a wonderful thing. I wouldn't be without it for the world. But radio hit the old family singing circle an awful wallop in the eye.

As a matter of fact it seems that kiddies are the only ones who have real fun at parties any more.

Kids apparently have more sense than a lot of grown-ups. They can have a big time right at home.

We oldsters seem to think a good time has to be an evening away from home ending up by being poured into a taxi at 4:00 a.m.

Dahlia Care Is Outlined

BY MRS. J. A. McAFEE

The dahlia family is believed to have its origin under the brilliant sun of old Mexico.

History says that two plants, a purple semi-double and a rose-pink single were introduced to Madrid from Mexico.

From these, seeds were distributed to Britain's Kew Gardens, then to France and Germany.

Winter storage of this plant is usually most easily effected after the plants have been blackened by the first frost and their tops cut to about six inches from ground level.

Dig tuber carefully with digging fork and turn upside down to drain moisture out of the large hollow stem.

Allow to dry for few hours and cover with dry sand or soil in cool basement. This prevents shrinking.

Teachers Plan Convention

University of Montana specialist in teacher education and curriculum problems, Dr. George E. Selke will be guest speaker at the Edmonton Division teachers' convention here next week.

Sessions of the convention will open Tuesday with registration at 9 a.m., and will continue through Tuesday afternoon. Meetings will be held at the Masonic Temple and the Edmonton Labor Temple, with school divisions meeting separately for some periods.

Teachers from Barrhead, Clover Bar Coal Branch, Edson-Jasper, Lac Ste. Ann, Smoky Lake, Stony Plain, Sturgeon, Thorhild and Westlock divisions are expected to attend.

Following addresses by Mayor Harry D. Ainlay and Eric C. Ansley, general secretary of the Alberta Teachers' Association teachers will launch a discussion of education programs in relation to industrial training. J. C. McKinley, Dr. Walter Johns and O. C. McIntyre will lead the round-table talks.

MONDAY AFTERNOON

Dr. Selke will speak Monday afternoon prior to individual division meetings.

Local meetings of the division will take place Wednesday morning, and general sessions Wednesday afternoon will be addressed by W. E. Frame, of the provincial department of education and speakers of the faculty of education here.

On Monday evening teachers will meet for a banquet and dance at the Masonic Temple auditorium.

HIGH DIGNITARIES of Roman Catholic church in Northern Alberta, Most Rev. J. H. MacDonald, archbishop of Edmonton (seated) and Msgr. W. B. Carleton, vicar general, check last minute plans of huge rally which will be held in Clarke Stadium here tomorrow. Archbishop MacDonald has extended welcome to all northern Albertans to take in rally.

Archbishop Extends Invitation To Rally

Strong plea to all the people of Edmonton and northern Alberta to attend the mammoth rosary crusade rally here tomorrow was made today by Most Rev. J. H. MacDonald, Roman Catholic archbishop of Edmonton.

"It is a great pleasure to have this opportunity of extending a cordial welcome to all the people of Edmonton to the final Family Rosary Crusade rally in Clarke Stadium," said His Excellency.

The rally gets underway at 3 p.m.

"Weather prospects at the present time are unfavorable; but while we are praying for fine weather because of its importance in our eyes to the success of the Crusade, we are fully resigned to God's will in the matter, knowing that from our humiliation and apparent defeat, He can bring even better results than those we so earnestly desire," he continued.

HEAVY LOSS

"Family prayer is the theme of the rally and the objective of the whole crusade. No human being is exempt from this obligation; and though many are excused by ignorance, the country in which they live suffers a very heavy spiritual loss, much the same as a country loses heavily in revenue when there is no employment for the people.

"We are willing to admit that we desire a large attendance at this final rally, not for the sake of demonstration itself, but because of its effect on the countless hundreds on the borderline of indifference.

"These are our responsibility to a greater degree than the multitude who are faithful to their obligations.

"The example of our laymen on the day of the rally will be a greater inspiration than most of them ever had before," the Archbishop concluded.

Chest Fund At $39,000

Community Chest fund received today the biggest donation ever made in any year's drive.

It totalled almost $10,000 and came from the Civil Service Association of Alberta.

Of the $9,450 for the province, Edmonton Chest will draw the largest share.

Calgary will receive $1,750, Lethbridge, $450 and Drumheller, $250.

Allocation is based on the number of civil servants living in each community.

Last year, civil servants boosted the Edmonton fund by $6,000, while Calgary, Lethbridge and Drumheller drew $1,500, $375 and $200 respectively.

Donations are financed by monthly deductions from the donors' salaries, Association officials explain.

In addition, it is likely that civil servants' contributions to other charitable bodies, such as the Red Cross, will total nearly $40,000 this year.

Campaign officials announced today that total contributions received up until last night amounted to $39,082.

50,000 Expected Here For Big Rally Sunday

Missing Flier Safe, Sound At Peace River

James Donald Landells, object of an extensive plane search in northern Alberta and B.C. yesterday, flew his light aircraft into Peace River at 5:15 p.m. safe and sound.

Landells, whose wife and young daughter live at 12410-105 avenue here, explained he had sat down on a small lake near the B.C. border because of bad weather.

One of the first things he did on his return to Peace River was phone his wife, Doreen, in Edmonton, and inform her that she had nothing to worry about.

"I'm not missing," he said. Then he asked her about their two-months old baby.

Landells' aircraft was spotted earlier Friday by an Air Force search plane. It was anchored on along lake, but there was no sign of the pilot.

REPORTED MISSING

His return to Peace River came as a surprise and at a time when the Air Force was preparing to send an amphibious Norseman to the lake to investigate the situation.

Landells was on a flight from Peace River to Want Lake, B.C., 106 miles northwest near the B.C.-Alberta border. When he failed to return to Peace River as scheduled he was reported missing.

He [illegible] A. M. Fisher of Peerless Lake, Northern Alberta, who owned the two-place, ponton-equipped plane piloted by the young flyer.

Landells had no radio aboard his plane with which to get word to Peace River that he would not return on schedule.

Jubilation in the Landells' home at 12410-105 avenue reached a high peak after confirmation that Don was safe and sound.

But jubilation swelled to greater proportions in the knowledge that tragedy had by-passed the family and that he would be present as originally planned for the wedding this afternoon of his brother George to Miss Jean Napier of Vegreville.

The wedding will be performed at St. Stephen's College chapel.

Parade

Next parade for 19th Alberta Armored Car Regiment will be in Connaught Armory Tuesday at 7:45 p.m.

CITY CLERK READY FOR ELECTIONS

City Clerk George Docherty now has 684 applicants for the 482 Nov. 2 election positions.

Most of the returning officer, poll clerk and special constable vacancies have been filled.

He is now anxious that all aspirants for mayoralty, city council, or public school board understand that before he can accept nomination papers between 11 and 12 a.m. Oct. 19, the papers must be checked by the city assessor. This is essential to determine that candidate's property qualifications are in order.

Candidates must own at least $500 city property to qualify.

Permits Top $33 Million

Edmonton's building permits total for 1949 today topped the $33 million mark.

P. Krynovishka did the trick with his permit for a $4,000 home at 11934-67 street.

More than $600,000 in adjusting permits have been issued this year—most of them adjustments in 1948 construction plans. [illegible] commercial projects.

On [illegible] adjustments range from $14 to $1,000 per unit, while on commercial buildings the difference is often as great as $15,000.

The long-tailed tit, a small bird of Great Britain, uses almost 3,000 feathers in its nest.

Family Prayer Theme Will Dominate Crusade

Largest crowd ever to assemble in Edmonton since the day in 1933 when Wiley Post stopped here on an around-the-world flight, is expected to gather at Clarke Stadium tomorrow for the first rosary crusade rally.

The rally, sponsored by the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Edmonton, is expected to draw upwards of 50,000 people from all over northern Alberta to a day of prayer and meditation.

Over 3,000 cars from all parts of the province are expected to converge on the city from 11 a.m. tomorrow until the rally gets underway at 3 p.m.

Rally chairman Hon. Lucien Maynard, Alberta's attorney general, in a statement yesterday, said the Stadium and surrounding grounds had been made ready to accommodate 60,000 persons.

FAMILY SLOGAN

The rally is an outgrowth of a six week crusade in the northern part of the province for family prayer. It was instigated by Rev. Patrick Peyton of Hollywood, Calif., founder of the Family Theatre of the Air.

Its slogan is "The family that prays together stays together."

A force of over 275 police and civilians have been recruited to handle the influx of traffic on all highways into the city. It is being directed by Inspector M. Kelly, chairman of the traffic committee.

An ingenious traffic system has been mapped out to guide cars to [illegible]

RCMP [illegible] traffic police, guiding various cavalcades while Edmonton city police will handle traffic within the city.

The rally will be filmed by 20th Century Fox who have sent special men and equipment to the city for the occasion.

The rally was organized and directed by the following committee.

Archdiocesan chairman, Most Rev. J. H. MacDonald, archbishop of Edmonton; Rev. P. J. O'R[illegible], archdiocesan director; Justice Hugh John Macdonald, archdiocesan lay chairman; Rt. Rev. M. J. O'Gorman, archdiocesan rally director, Hon. Lucien Maynard, rally chairman and Rev. E. Biere, press liaison.

Thanksgiving Week-End Will Be A Busy One For Little Chief

Dear Tawasis:

Little Chief is a mighty excited young fellow this week-end because instead of two holidays there are three He's planned to do many things Thanksgiving Day.

For Little Chief, the week-end fun started yesterday at school. The boys and girls in his room at school decided to raise money for the Junior Red Cross and having a candy sale was the way they planned to do it.

Friday, all the pupils brought batches of homemade candy to school for the sale. There 'was peanut brittle, chocolate fudge, maple fudge and even popcorn balls and molasses taffy. It was a good assortment.

SOLD CANDY

Little Chief and [illegible] put candy in bags before the bell rang [illegible] during the noon hour they sold the bags of fudge and taffy [illegible] think they were [illegible] the candy went so quickly.

And the best part of all was the fact that they raised $5.35. When they skooted home after four yesterday [illegible] girl was so proud and happy. One or two did have a tummy ache, but that was all.

Three days of fun is something Little Chief likes. This morning he was awake bright and early and off to the YMCA. This is something new for Little Chief, but along with some of his friends, he is going to take swimming and gym classes during the winter months. He's a pretty good swimmer now, but he figures that there is a lot he can still learn.

Knowing Little Chief, it isn't difficult to guess what he will be doing this afternoon. Some of the boys [illegible] going to the house of one of Little Chief's friends to listen to the rugby game. They certainly will be cheering for the Eskimos.

But the best part of the whole week-end will be Monday for Little Chief and his Dad are going shooting. The young fellow has promised that he will be up and dressed by 4 a.m. all ready for the adventure. This means that he must go to bed early Sunday but he doesn't mind that at all. Not when he can go shooting.

Little Chief doesn't know too much about the sport but he's excited about it already. They've got a spot all chosen where they are sure they will get prairie chicken and ducks. Little Chief thinks it would be marvellous if they got a goose. It should be fun, and he's promised to be very careful.

Even if they have no luck on the shoot, Thanksgiving dinner will be extra special. Little Chief's mother has bought a big turkey and she's been baking delicious pumpkin pie just for Monday.

Little Chief realizes, that just like many other boys and girls he [illegible].

He hopes that you have just as interesting a week-end as he plans to have.

[illegible]

Uncle Wiggily's Bedtime Story

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Bunty the orphan rabbit stood on the deck of Uncle Wiggily's amusement raft in Frog Pond.

"Now then, Buster Longears, what is this all about?" Bunty stood in the moonlight looking at the Rabbit Scout. "Why did you wake me up in the middle of the night and ask me to hide in Uncle Wiggily's pirate gold boat? I ask you why?"

Bunty spoke in a whisper so she wouldn't awaken the others.

"I told you why." Buster was also whispering. "Don't you want to go to Ghost Island and help daddy look for the pirate gold?"

"Sure I want to go, Buster. But this afternoon I asked Uncle Wiggily to take me with him on the gold expedition and he said I couldn't go."

"He told me the same thing, Bunty, but we're going any way."

"How, Buster?"

"We'll go as stowaways."

"What's a stowaway, Buster?"

"A stowaway is somebody who hides on a boat or ship without a ticket and without letting the captain or crew know about it.

"Well, Buster, it sounds very exciting. But where's the ship?"

"It isn't exactly a ship, Bunty. It's the boat that Captain Silver rowed to the raft after his vessel, Red Rover, was sunk by pirates. There's the boat tied to the south side of daddy's raft."

In the moonlight Bunty saw the boat that had been used by the shipwrecked sailor dog who called himself Captain Silver.

"That's the boat, Bunty. We'll stowaway aboard her and go to the gold island before daddy or Bosun or Captain Silver knows about us."

"I see the boat." Bunty twinkled her little pink nose at it. "But it seems to be filled already. There's a big pile of stuff under the canvas that Uncle Wiggily sometimes uses to make us a play tent."

PICKS AND SHOVELS

"That's what it is, Bunty. It's the canvas of a tent. Under it are picks and shovels for digging gold. I guess maybe daddy and Bosun plan to stay on Ghost Island maybe a week to hunt for the gold."

"Oh, it's so exciting!" whispered Bunty. "Wait until I get something from under my bed and I'll be with you."

"What do you want to get, Bunty?"

"A secret weapon to scare the ghosts."

"Foole! There are no ghosts."

"Well, then I won't have to scare them. What have you got?"

"I've got some food and camp stuff for us. Now hurry!"

Bunty went back into the sleeping cabin and soon came out with her newest secret weapon. Then she and Buster hopped softly to the row boat, made fast to the side of the raft, and crawled beneath the big piece of canvas amid many picks, shovels and baskets of food.

"Ouch!" exclaimed Bunty. "I sat on the edge of a shovel!"

"A pick is sticking me in the back, but I don't mind," said Buster. "Now snuggle down under the cover. It will soon be morning and we'll be on our way to Ghost Island and the gold!"

"Oh! Oh!" whispered Bunty

"What's the matter now?" asked Buster.

"Somebody is crowding in with us!" whispered Bunty. "Oh! Oh!"

Varied Roster of Activities Packed Into October Schedule

Crisp October is a busy month for Edmonton women. Gay roster of teas, coffee parties, opening-season receptions must be tucked into a schedule of bazaars, displays, handicraft exhibitions, concerts, entertainments.

First major ball was held last night when Junior Chamber of Commerce presented their sixth annual Quadrille at the Macdonald hotel ballroom.

Canadian Women's Press Club members are forging ahead with plans for their first annual By-Line Ball to be held in the Macdonald hotel ballroom Oct. 20. Social convener Kay Ford is at the helm with Shirley Smith, Dellis Cleland, Jean Richards, Betty Reynolds, Ella Jacoby Walker assisting.

YWCA Bridge party will be held Oct. 12 with Mrs. A. W. Macbeth busy arranging last minute details.

Executives of the Canadian Handicrafts Guild, Edmonton Branch, are spending October preparing for their annual exhibition at Convocation hall. This year it will be held Nov. 12.

University of Alberta alumni will gather at the U for fun and frolic Nov. 4 and 5. This means October preparation for alumni secretary J. W. Markle and his assistant Kay Ben-Dixon.

"There's nothing to do in Edmonton" just isn't an excuse for lack of activity this month of October.

21-Year-Old Violinist To Appear Here

Music lovers of Edmonton will welcome the concert performance of 21-year-old violinist Donna Grescoe Oct. 24.

She will play at the Masonic Temple Oct. 24 on her Edmonton stop-over of her coast-to-coast tour. This cross-Canada tour is first in a series to be sponsored by Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Purpose is to introduce Canadian artists to Canadian audiences.

Donna has made debuts in her home town in 1946, at New York's town hall in 1947 and last year at Carnegie hall with internationally-renown Leopold Mittman as accompanist.

The Federation announced in a recent statement that 40 of its clubs are participating in the tour which will take the young virtuoso to 29 centres across Canada.

Proceeds from the tour will go into a speakers' bureau fund "which will in time become a size worthy to be offered to some young Canadian woman of exceptional talent to help her continue her education."

In 1942, at the age of 14 she won her first major laurels by taking first prize at the Winnipeg musical festival and receiving British composer-pianist Arthur Benjamin's personal acclaim.

He said: "I award her four marks higher than I have ever given at any festival. Hats off, gentlemen. A genius."

The young violinist played her first musical notes on a $5 fiddle, which a door-to-door salesman peddled to her home in 1933.

Within six years her prowess had grown to tremendous heights.

Miss Grescoe has been fostered by musical circles in Canada and United States and is considered to have great potentialities for the immediate future. Right now she is amazing concert audiences across the country.

Sunday Tea-Time Hostess

PATRONS, FRIENDS of the Edmonton Community Theatre will be welcomed at the tea-hour tomorrow at the Ravine Drive home of Mrs. G. Eldon Hayward. Dr. W. G. Hardy will be guest speaker during the afternoon. Pouring tea will be Mrs. C. E. Campbell, Jr., Mrs. J. F. Battersby, Mrs. B. F. Farnham, Mrs. A de Bruin.

Shriner Ceremonial Today Keeps Pair Busy

ACTIVITIES ARE PACKED into today's 24 hours for Shriners of Edmonton and district and their wives. Mrs. J. M. Cumming, left, and Mrs. David Little have been busy all week planning activities for the women. A ceremonial tea is taking place in the ABC Salons of the Macdonald hotel this afternoon. Mrs. Cumming and Mrs. Little are receiving guests.

Plans Return To Tel Aviv

PAST FOUR YEARS have been spent by Rowena Adilman studying economics of transportation at University of California in Berkley. She is visiting in the city for a few days. Miss Adilman's plan is to return to her Palestine home of Tel Aviv next year. Born in Saskatoon, she went to Palestine at five years of age.

Ceremonials Today Provide Shriner Fun

Today is a big day for Shriners and their wives.

It is ceremonial day for the men and women are kept busy with teas, luncheons, dinner parties.

Mrs. J. M. Cumming, wife of Edmonton's leading Shriner, entertained executive members of the women's auxiliary at luncheon today. This afternoon she is receiving guests in company with Mrs. David Little in the ABC salons of the Macdonald hotel. Mrs. W. C. Yuill, wife of the illustrious potentate of Al Azhar Temple, Calgary, received with them.

This evening a dinner dance will be held at the Macdonald to culminate the day's festivities.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Canned Soups Head Bea's Shopping List

By Bea Thrifty

You'd hardly believe that black magic lurked inside every tin you buy, would you?

But it does, and that's why canned soup, in every type, flavor and variety, always features prominently on my weekly shopping list.

• • •

Naturally, everyone is already aware that soup is a wonderful beginner for a meal, and that it makes an easy-to-get and reviving lunch.

In case you think these are the only uses for soup, here are some hints to make kitchen witchery work for you, too!

• • •

One of the nicest soups I can think of for these unseasonably cold autumn days is tomato. Did you know that the tomato soup you buy now is the best, because it's the fresh tomato pack that is arriving daily in the stores?

• • •

Furthermore, lots 'n' lots of people use this goodie not only as soup, but as a tomato sauce and cooking ingredient.

Forty-eight ounce tins of one popular Canadian soup brand are available for serving in public eating places, cafeterias, schools and hospitals.

Three new flavors of soup to be sold in the large tins have been added to the list, bringing the total up to eleven.

• • •

Some days half a tin of soup, clam chowder, for instance, may suffice for a snack. Then use the rest of the soup as a sauce for salmon loaf for dinner.

To use for sauce, add ¼ cup water to a half tin of soup, simmer a few minuts then pour over the [illegible] you serve it.

• • •

Here's a thought for the kiddies' Hallowe'en supper party!

For bright jack-o-lantern soup, serve bowls of tomato soup, which form the faces. Then use thin slices of stuffed olive for the eyes, and whipped cream or salad dressing for the nose and mouth.

It's awfully good with cheese crackers.

• • •

Don't forget to ask for some [illegible] and saves time, too.

[illegible] clean, cut or cook, [illegible] the delicate flavour of [illegible]

• • •

Gravy to go with the fowl and and stuffing should be plentiful. Another tin of soup helps extend it in a way everyone will enjoy.

• • •

Use this gravy made with cream of mushroom soup.

One 10 ounce tin of cream of [illegible] soup, two cups of water, [illegible] broth from giblets, about [illegible] drippings, three tablespoons [illegible] chopped giblets

[illegible] soup and one and ½ cups water, add to drippings, stir [illegible] boiling. Meanwhile, mix flour with remaining water and add to gravy when it boils, stirring until it thickens, then add giblets.

• • •

If you have leftover turkey or chicken in the icebox, use it to make this hot sandwich in a jiffy. Toast five slices of bread lightly.

Mix two cups of cubed fowl and one 10 ounce tin of cream of celery soup. Spread the mixture on the bread, then place in a moderate oven about 10 minuts, until sandwich is hot and bubbly.

Garnish with sliced stuffed olives. Mmmmm, good'.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Girls Don't Marry For Money Anymore

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a young man, 23 years old, and have the instinct of any normal person to marry, but am not economically independent, nor do I have any prospect of being such for years to come.

Is a man supposed to stay single just because he can't support a wife? Women only marry when men have money, and I fail to see where that makes them any better than women of the street. What is your opinion?

J. A. C.

ANSWER: I think there is no other such bunk as the charge that men make that women marry only for money.

Perhaps there may have been some grain of truth in it in the old days when there were no avocations open to women but teaching and housework, and a woman had to marry in order to get somebody to support her.

But certainly in these days, when any intelligent, able-bodied girl can support herself quite as likely as a husband will be able to do it, women do not marry for a meal ticket.

They go out and earn their own bread and butter, and nine times out of ten when they get married it is because they love some man well enough to give up a good job for him.

And mighty often it is a poor trade, and the girl knows it when she is making it.

PROOF

For the proof of this statement look around among your own acquaintances. How many girls do you know whom you even suspect of having married for money.

How many men do you know who have the price to buy a wife, even if girls were willing to sell themselves? The value of a wife runs into real money and only [illegible] men can afford to buy gold-digging ladies.

On the contrary, don't you know dozens of girls who have married poor boys, knowing that they would have to give up a mahagony desk for a cookstove, that they would have to pinch and economize as [illegible] earning their own money and living at home, and knowing that they would have to go shabby and push their own perambulators and undergo all the hardships of a poor man's wife, but doing it gladly because some man was more to them than good clothes and their own pay envelopes and running around to parties?

So don't talk any more nonsense about girls only marrying for money. It doesn't make sense in these times when women pull their share in the boat instead of being clinging vines.

There's a Costume Glove For Every Costume

I'm glad the costume glove is again the smartest glove fashion. From earliest times, gloves have always been a beautiful part of a woman's costume. It took our practical modern age to turn them into a utilitarian classic!

But now gloves are real costume gloves again — as pretty and feminine as our clothes. Even casual gloves are stylized, and I think they look more interesting than they have in years.

In Paris, too, the costume glove is the thing, even in long gloves. In fact, the Dior twenty-button glove with pointed top was something of a sensation.

Alliance Francaise Entertain Speaker

Following his address on the "Origins Of Modern Painting" to the Alliance Francaise in the [illegible] Wednesday evening, executive members of the group entertained for Jean Mouton, and Mrs. Mouton.

Miss Paulette Crevolin, president of the Alliance, introduced the speaker.

Other executive members are Dr. G. Fortier, Miss Marie Paule Bleriot, Euclide Hebert, Miss Reine Morin, Miss Yvonne Parent, and Mrs. W. Philion, social convener, Miss Sylvia Evans, Miss Jean McLaggan and Countess de la Feld, who were in charge of the entertainment.

Miss Diane Kehaya was vocalist and Miss Geraldine Mason provided piano solos at the event.

Michel Pasquin thanked Mr. Mouton. Mrs. A. Crevolin and Mr. R. Crevolin also assisted at the reception, where the table was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Early Decisions Teach Child's Independence

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

If this department harps too persistently on the necessity to encourage children to stand on their own feet, it is because evidences of failure to do this are so obvious everywhere.

One of the hardest tasks any parent has to perform is to make herself progressively less necessary to her children. It is so satisfying to a parent to be needed that in her eagerness to continue to be so, she indulges the child, nullifies the results of his mistakes, tries to be all things to him or her.

Teaching children to be independent is not an overnight task. It is not a matter—in adolescence—of being suddenly stern and handsoffish. It doesn't mean allowing the child to suffer for some drastic mistake when all his life he has not been penalized for minor ones.

No, the teaching has to be continuous and consistent. Every day of a child's life there are some decisions he can make and learn their consequences. The discussion may be no more important than whether he shall wear this or that suit. He'll learn something by each decision he makes.

As he grows and meets children on the playground he may have to make important decisions about the persons with whom he chooses to play. He'll have to weigh character and a child's particular interest for him, not just be swayed by his own parents' liking for a child or their feeling that he is socially valuable.

Choosing one's own friends is one of the privileges a parent may accord a child with the hope that his experiences will make him wiser as an adult.

It is when parents are too indulgent, too self-sacrificing, too determined to meet all the child's needs, make all the child's decisions and minimize all the penalties of his behavior, that the child grows up unable to face the punishment life is sure to inflict.

Since fate has determined that children will eventually have to get along without parents, it should be the goal toward which they are directed every day of their lives.

Our leaflet No. 41, "Developing Independence," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

WI Funds Raised By Paper Subscriptions

Stony Plain WI branch will raise funds by taking newspaper subscriptions in rural areas.

Members held a picnic and will sponsor a tag day for the blind and a tea and home cooking sale.

Wainwright branch heard a report of the Viking conference given by Mrs. E. E. Wilbraham. The members are making a quilt which is to be raffled for the benefit of WI funds. Plans were completed for the campaign to help the Canadian National Institute of the Blind. Mrs. Charles Steele, a former member of the Women's Institute in Sheffield, England, was a visitor and told of the drastic food situation in the old country. Mrs. Steele will make her home in this district.

Beauty Prairie branch, a new WI near Peace River, held the first meeting recently and decided to petition the Peace River School Division for supervised noon-hours for the country children. A food hamper will be given to the hospital when the new wing is opened in the fall. A social evening is planned after the harvest. Mrs. R. Wallace was appointed librarian and a travelling library will be ordered from the extension library.

Boyle branch answered the roll call with ideas on preparing the tots for their first venture in education. Mrs. Stan Raaflaub gave the report of the constituency conference. The constituency convener, the teachers, and all former members will be invited to the Boyle WI's 20th birthday. Each member is to bring a gift to the WI and these will be sold at the bazaar. Members will gather recipes from residents in the district for the purpose of compiling a WI cook book. Reports were received from the standing committees.

Reo Dennis branch have donated $5 to the ACWW fund and the same to the AWI fund. They plan to have a demonstration on how to make chesterfield covers and later will have the course on interior decoration.

THIS EXERCISE, done as Josephine Lowman suggests today, will attack figure-molding problems in waist, abdomen, hips and calves.

WHY GROW OLD

Women Discouraged When Sizes Change

By Josephine Lowman

Have you been shopping lately? If so, you may have found it discouraging that a certain suit or gown looked so stunning on the model and so stunned on you!

Summer is fine for health and relaxation, but it is hard on the hair and skin, and sometimes on the figure, if you found it impossible to indulge in sports during the very hot weather. Fall is a special time for getting both your clothes and your figure out of mothballs!

For this reason, "Why Grow Old?" has been concentrating on figure-molding exercises recently, especially on those which slim the waist, abdomen and hips. Today's exercise is helpful for faults in all three areas and is also slimming to the legs if you wish it to be.

Stand with your hand on the wall or on the back of a chair. Swing the leg furthest away from the wall or chair froward and backward, reaching as far in each direction as possible. Do not bend forward. Keep your trunk erect and your knees stiff. NOW, if you wish to slim your calf, pull your toe back toward your head on the forwrad-upward swing. Do this carefully. It will hurt if you jerk your toe back and swing far up. Try it out. If you do NOT want to slim the calf of your leg, point your toe instead of pulling it back on the forward swing. Do 30 swings with each leg.

When the first north wind blows into the tropics, or the first frost hits the grass, it is time for self-improvement. Psychologically, we feel that a new life is arriving, and we have enough energy to do something about making ourselves lovely for it.

If you wuold like to take a few inches from your waist, abdomen or hip measurement, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 6, "Don't Go to Waist!" or No. 2, "Abdominal Exercises," or No. 3, "Hip Exercises." Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

MINCEMEAT PIE

One apple, 2 1-lb. cans or jars (3 cups) prepared mincemeat, 2 tablespoons sherry, 1 unbaked 9" pie shell.

Start your oven at 425F or hot.

Peel and core the apple and chop up coarsely. Mix it in with the mincemeat and then mix in the sherry. Put into unbaked pie shell and bake 30 minutes.

Serve hot with well-aged Cheddar cheese or sherry-flavored hard sauce.

Optimistic Bidding Draws Little Slam

By William E. McKenney

Dr. Leo F. Schiff of Plattsburg, N.Y., sent me today's bidding problem. He opened the bidding with two hearts, and when his partner bid two no trump, he jumped to four diamonds. His partner took him to four hearts. They made six, and Dr. Schiff wondered how they could have arrived at the slam contract.

Lesson Hand on Bidding

| South | West | North | East |
|---|---|---|---|
| 2 ♥ | Pass | 2 N.T. | Pass |
| 3 ♦ | Pass | 3 N.T. | Pass |
| 4 ♦ | Pass | 5 ♦ | Pass |
| 6 ♦ | Pass | Pass | Pass |

First of all, you do not have to open the South hand with a forcing two-bid, although there is no great mistake made if you do. Most players use ace-showing responses of the two-bid, so when North bids two no trump, you know that he does not have the ace of hearts or ace of clubs.

Once you have made a two demand bid, your partner is required to keep the bidding open until game is reached. Therefore there is no need at this point to crowd the bidding with a jump to four diamonds. Three diamonds is the better bid.

North does not have much preference for hearts or diamonds, so he should bid three no trump. This gives South a chance to bid four diamonds. Now North has a pretty good reading on the hand. He knows that South probably has two six-card suits. South has indicated that he is willing to play the hand for a game in hearts or a game in diamonds. As North prefers to play it for a game in diamonds, he should bid five diamonds.

When the bidding comes around to South, he does not know too much about the hand. He knows that North does not have the ace of hearts, and that he probably has more diamonds than hearts; or if he has the same number in each of those suits, he will have an honor in diamonds. South might figure that the diamonds will break 2-2, and he could ruff a heart, or find the hearts divided 2-2, to establish that suit and make a slam. So, if he is optimistic, he bids six diamonds, which he can make, losing only the ace of hearts.

Mary Joan Macleod Weds Ronald H. Keeler

Bronze and yellow mums provided an attractive background in First Presbyterian Church yesterday for the early evening ceremony in which Mary Joan Macleod and Ronald Henry Keeler exchanged marriage vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. James Macleod and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Keeler, all of Edmonton.

Rev. J. MacBeath Miller performed the ceremony, in which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

BROWN HAT WORN

Ankle-length gown of brown lace over oyster moire taffeta was chosen by the bride. She completed her ensemble with matching lace halo hat and mittens, and a corsage of gardenias and sweetheart roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Norman A. Macleod, who wore a grey crepe dress with burgundy accessories and a pink rose corsage.

Best man was Gordon Ferguson, and the guests were ushered by Norman A. Macleod and Roy Keeler.

Wedding music was played by A. Newcombe.

RECEPTION AT MAC

Reception was held later at the Macdonald hotel where the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom received.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Macleod chose a toupe crepe dress with a mauve hat and corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Keeler was in Alice blue with grey accessories and Talisman roses en corsage.

Three-tier cake centred the bride's table, which was decorated with sweetheart roses.

Mrs. J. Campbell MacPherson and Mrs. Lloyd Cunningham presided at the coffee urns, and Dr. J. Campbell MacPherson proposed the bridal toast.

As her going-away ensemble, the bride wore a brown and green wool worsted suit with brown velvet trim, brown accessories and Gainsborough green hat with feather trim. Brown fur topcoat completed her costume.

Miss Shaw Chooses Satin For Wedding Vows Here

Eggshell satin gown was chosen by Margaret Christina Shaw for her marriage to FO Robert Holder McNichol, which took place recently in Robertson United Church.

Rev. R. McElroy Thompson performed the late afternoon ceremony before an altar banked with fall flowers in shades of pink and white.

The bride is the daughter of B. B. Shaw of Edmonton, and the bridegroom is the son of R. J. McNichol of St. John, N.B. Mr. Shaw gave his daughter in marriage.

FULL-LENGTH VEIL

The bride's gown was made with a fitted bodice with net yoke, ecru lace trim and lily-point sleeves, while the divided overskirt cascaded to a long train. Close-fitting cap of matching eggshell satin caught her three-quarter length veil.

She carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and wore a diamond onyx pendant as her only ornament.

Maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Shaw, and bridesmaid, Miss Mary Shaw, sisters of the bride, were frocked alike in rose taffeta. Floral headdresses matched their bouquets of carnations and sweetheart roses.

Best man was Flt.-Lt. David Halcrow and the ushers were J. R. Suter and FO E. Hudson.

Wedding music was played by Richard J. Carroll.

Pink and white carnations decorated the drawing room of the Macdonald hotel, where the reception was held. Tall tapers flanked the tiered cake which centred the bride's table.

Mrs. J. R. Suter, sister of the bride, received the guests. She wore a grey taffeta dress with matching hat and black accessories.

Corsage of dark red roses was pinned at her shoulder.

Bridal toast was proposed by George J. Bryan, KC.

For travelling, the bride wore a grey wool dress with navy topcoat, matching accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. McNichol will make their home in Edmonton.

Special From The Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—Parliament was knee-deep in estimates this week and both the Senate and the Commons found something for themselves in the Government's request for supplementary funds for the year.

There was a $10,000 item to provide for the full sessional indemnity for Senators who had failed to qualify because of absence for the full amount, and to pay for transportation of Senators to and from Ottawa.

LET'S BE KIND TO US

There was another item of $15,500 to provide the same consideration for members of the Commons. The Commoners, technically, are supposed to fill in their 65 sittings days to get the full sessional indemnity of $4,000. On top of this, of course, is the $2,000 annually for expenses.

Winth two sessions of Parliament this year old members—those who carried over from the last Parliament,—will get an indemnity of $8,000.

In the best position of all are the Parliamentary assistants to [illegible] demnities and expenses, they get an extra $4,000 annually as Par[illegible]

"Doesn't bring back any memories to me," said Bevin bluntly. "I've never been here before."

Mr. Bevin explained he had visited Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver, but somehow, had never got around to the town Mackenzie King calls home.

Mr. King quickly salvaged the national pride. "You were saving the best for the last," he told Mr. Bevin.

Improve, Not Junk, Tory Election Plea

Will Hammer At Inefficiency Of The Socialist Bureaucracy

British Prime Minister Clement Attlee must decide soon whether to hold elections this fall or wait until next year. Should he decide for immediate elections it is possible the Conservative party may come back to power. How many changes would the Conservatives make after more than four years of British Socialism? In the following exclusive despatch to the Bulletin, the British United Press presents the Conservative party's stand on the nationalization issue.—EDITOR.

By R. H. Shackford
British United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(UP)—Winston Churchill's Conservative party will maintain Britain's national health service if they win the coming election but nationalization of steel will be junked. These were the major facts of Conservative party policy emerging today from a study of campaign promises.

Prime Minister Clement Attlee, according to authoritative sources, must decide during the next 10 days whether to hold early general elections or try to postpone them until next year. Conservatives are sure they have in devaluation of the pound sterling a sharp weapon to help them at the polls.

Their major specific promise will be to junk the Labor government's plans to nationalize the steel and iron industry. The bill has been approved and it is to become law next spring. They will abandon also Labor blueprints for nationalization of other industries such as cement, sugar refining, insurance and bus lines.

SHARE BASIC POLICIES

But they will keep the national services, which are very popular in Britain. Even the British Conservative party leans close to some of the basic policies of the Labor party—socialized medicine for example.

Conservative leaders are very cautious about their predictions of what they will do if they win. They know victory will throw in their laps one of the most critical financial and economic crises in Britain's history.

Campaign promises therefore are in generalities which will be subject to execution as the circumstance may warrant at the time.

For example, the Conservatives promise to reduce government controls—but not all at once. "When there is a shortage of anything—dollars, food, raw materials or consumer goods—there must be [illegible] supervised by the government," a Conservative party leader said.

WILL RELAX RATIONING

Here is the Conservative approach to some of the major issues:

[illegible] Conservatives say they cannot [illegible] which ones or how much reduction can be made until they take power, look at the government books, and analyze the situation.

Employment: Full employment will be maintained. (This is a keynote of the Labor program). Piece work and profit-sharing programs will be encouraged. Greater productivity will make more supplies available for home consumption despite the export drive, the Conservatives claim.

Social services: These will be maintained. But, the Tories say, "We will put them in the hands of people who know how to run them in a business like way."

Cost of living: The Conservatives [illegible] to maintain necessary rationing but to abandon government bulk buying of supplies. They maintain living costs will go down through increased production efficiency, elimination of Socialist administration costs and maintenance of government subsidies where necessary.

OK FOREIGN POLICY

Foreign policy: Continued support of the United Nations, the Western European Alliances including the Atlantic Pact, and Commonwealth ties.

Nationalization: The Conservative industrial charter says the Tories oppose nationalization as a principal but it hedges concerning some industries already nationalized.

Coal: "Rather than propose complete denationalization of the coal industry we would examine and modify the methods by which the Socialists tried to run it."

Bank of England: "It has been working in harmony with the government for many years. Nationalizing it was unnecessary."

In general: "We shall overhaul the organization of those industries which remain nationalized. We shall submit them to the test of the highest standards of commercial efficiency."

IMPROVEMENT URGED BY UNIVERSITY DEAN

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Oct. 8.—(CP)—M. E. Lazerte, dean of the faculty of education at the University of Alberta, yesterday told the opening meeting of the southwestern Alberta Teachers' Association that long-term methods should be adopted to improve conditions.

He said it also was necessary to screen more careful applicants for teacher training. Training courses should be enlarged, extended and improved with emphasis being placed on the fact that to teach means to direct growth and develop character and personality.

Dean Lazerte said the teacher shortage was about 7,276 in January, 1948. In the last 10 years, about 46,000 teachers had been trained but only 20,600 remained in the profession.

During that period school enrolment increased and 70,000 should be trained. This year only 7,300 are enrolled in training schools in Canada.

By more careful selection of teacher trainees, the prestige of the profession could be raised, he said. They should be given a more practical and longer period of training, better living conditions and higher pay.

He said that 15 per cent of Canadian teachers earn less than $1,000 a year while five per cent get $3,000.

PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 8.—(AP) —A United States Navy spokesman said yesterday that all Mars seaplanes have been ordered not to fly. The Philippine Mars arrived safely at Honolulu Sept. 6 after one of its four engines dropped into the sea.

Wonder Hormones Aid Battle Against Cancer

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The two new wonder hormones—ACTH and Cortisone—"may well represent a medical advance of history making proportions in the field of cancer."

This view was expressed yesterday by a man close to the subject—Dr. Charles S. Cameron, medical director of the American Cancer Society.

AIDS LEUKEMIA

He said cortisone had shown "promising results" in treating several cases of leukemia, a cancer-like condition of the blood.

"It's my opinion these drugs will find rather extensive uses in tumors in general," he added.

This was the first public announcement that the hormones, which brought sensational improvement to arthritis and rheumatic fever sufferers, may become a major weapon in the fight against cancer.

Dr. Cameron's statements were made to newspaper men before he addressed the annual state conference of the society's Illinois division. He cautioned that the studies on the new drugs are preliminary and that not many cases have been tried.

Cortisone originally was isolated from the adrenal glands of animals. Now it is produced by a synthetic process from ox bile. It has been estimated the bile from 14,600 oxen is necessary to produce the cortisone needed to treat one arthritis patient one year.

ACTH is obtained from the pituitary glands of hogs. It requires about 400,000 hog pituitaries to make a pound of ACTH. Doctors say production must somehow be increased 5,000 to 10,000 times to meet the needs of arthritis sufferers.

Return To Calgary Gets Him Jail Term

CALGARY, Oct. 8. — (CP) — Edward Campbell of Vancouver returned to the scene of his crime this week and Thursday he got two years for it. He was sentenced on a charge of forgery here in May, 1947. He spent most of the intervening time in British Columbia prisons.

Thanks, Mister!

This is the kid who stood at the crossroads just a year ago in need of aid and understanding. In one direction lay the crooked lane to Reform School.

But you helped start him on the other road—the straight path to Good Citizenship.

Red Feather dollars found a foster home for the kid, where for the first time he knew affection, security, intelligent guidance. It was a bargain buy. A criminal costs a lot more than that.

This year other kids need the same help—and remember the others, too—the aged, the ill, the handicapped.

Thanks, Mister! Thanks for what you did. Thanks for doing it again.

Thousands Coming To Prayer Rally

RED DEER, Oct. 8—With the addition of 30 cars from Rocky Mountain House, Sylvan Lake, Trochu, and Olds to the fifty vehicles and two buses, carrying the Red Deer section of the Family Rosary Cavalcade, about 80 automobiles will transport nearly 450 Red Deer and district Catholics to the Rosary Crusade Rally, at Clarke Stadium, in Edmonton, Sunday afternoon

Between 50 and 60 thousand Catholics from Central and Northern Alberta, are expected to attend the meeting, which will be addressed by Father Patrick Peyton, founder of the Crusade movement.

Red Deer group will be joined at Lacombe, by cars from Bentley, Rimbey and Lacombe; and, at Wetaskiwin, representatives from Big Valley, Stettler, Castor, Coronation, and Camrose, will unite with those from this area.

The calvacade which will enter Edmonton from the south highway, is expected to number at least 800, of the more than 3,000 cars, that will converge on the city, from five different routes.

IODE Chapter Okays Petition Re Sex Criminals

WILLINGDON, Oct. 8.—October meeting of the Col. Reid Chapter IODE was held at the home of Mrs. Don Nash with Mrs. Nikon Shandro co-hostess. The Regent, Mrs. A. S. Downey, presided. A petition addressed to John Decore, MP for this constituency re sex criminals was read and signed by all members present.

The chapter catered for a banquet for the Chamber of Commerce when the Friendship Train visits Willingdon Oct. 14. Mrs. H. R. Savage was appointed convener to select her own committee to make all arrangements. Mrs. Manoli Tkachuk was elected Secretary Resignation of Mrs. Geo. Eliuk was accepted with regret as she will be leaving town shortly.

Miss Fisher, RN addressed the members regarding forming a Hospital Aid. It was felt that a general meeting of the ladies of the community should be called for this purpose.

Business Change

VERMILION, Oct. 8—Fred Firth has sold his wholesale business to Glen Hildreth, who has disposed of his taxi business to R. A. Watt Hildreth continues to operate Clem's Delivery.

Mr. Firth has been in business in Vermilion for some 20 years and is now retiring.

ON BEHALF of Red Deer Kinsmen Club, Dr. R. M. Parson presents crippled Jackie Pallo with famous gas buggy, Red Deer's most useful vehicle, as fellow Kinsmen Jack Osborne, George Nechkin and Dr. Lorne Oatway look on.

Jackie Becomes New Owner Of Noted Midget Gas Buggy

RED DEER, Oct. 8—Red Deer's Jackie Pallo is a happy lad today. Having fallen heir to a midget gas buggy, that's been a local landmark for some years, the crippled youth, who has just graduated from the Composite High School, with honors, now has high hopes that his new found means of locomotion will help him get a job.

Jackie, 18-year-old son of Mrs. Henry Pallo, of Red Deer, has been crippled since the age of five. Members of the Kinsmen Club, had purchased the little vehicle for an elderly Red Deer man, Sydney Smith, who used it for many years, until his death 10 months ago. They saw an opportunity to put the sturdy "auto-cycle", to good use once more, and Jackie Pallo was the lucky lad who joined the ranks of the motoring public.

Thursday, Dr. R. M. Parsons, on behalf of the Red Deer Kinsmen Club, presented Jackie with the completely overhauled and freshly painted vehicle, at a ceremony in front of the City Office, while his fellow Kinsmen, Jack Osborne, George Nechkin, and Dr. Lorne Oatway applauded.

Jackie told Dr. Parsons, that it was difficult to find words to express his gratitude, but he wished the Kinsmen to know he was glad to have been born in Red Deer, where such kindness existed. The last we saw of Jackie Pallo, he was jauntily headed home, in Red Deer's most unique, and possibly, most useful vehicle

Brothers Lead Cage Scoring

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 8—DeSorcy Brothers—Raymond and Gerald—were the high scorers as league play in the High School Basketball League opened with the Buffaloes eking out a 25-20 victory over the Bombers. Gerald, star for the winners counted 10 points, while Raymond scored an even dozen in a furiously contested league opener.

The six team league, under the presidency of Alex Semaka, have a complete schedule for the season winding up with a playoff series for the school championship. Tornadoes, who are not represented in play this season were champions of the league last year.

Teams entered for the current term are: Buffaloes, Bombers, Wild Cats, Ozarks, Hurricanes and the Mustangs.

Competed at Olds

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 8.—Florence Shadlock and Gwen Lowen, both of the Livingstone Junior Beef Club, and Wilfred Boese and Claude Webb, Jr., of the Acme Grain Club, represented this district at provincial competition at the weekend at Olds, Alberta. District agriculturist here is N. F. Bell.

Art Centre

DIDSBURY, Oct. 8—Organization meeting for a Community Art Centre in Didsbury was held in the home economics room of the Didsbury high school last night.

Fire Brigade Plans Thorough Inspection

WETASKIWIN, Oct. 8—Next Wednesday, October 12, will be a busy day for the Wetaskiwin fire brigade. On that day, midway through Fire Prevention Week, the 12 members of the volunteer department, under Chief Dave Baker, will be divided into squads. They will visit all public buildings, hotels, rooming houses and inspect fire equipment and fire escapes.

They will also examine such buildings for fire hazards.

Public schools will be visited and practices will be held by pulling the fire alarm and seeing in what order and with what speed the schools can be cleared. The Community Hospital will also receive attention.

Restaurants will be inspected with a special eye to fire hazards.

In the late afternoon, when all inspections have been completed the fire fighters will stage a water battle in the Memorial Park.

The modus operandi of a water battle is that the brigade is divided into two teams, six men aside. A barrel is placed midway between the teams. Hoses are connected to hydrants, the nozzles pointing upwards. At a given signal each team endeavors, by directing the stream of water from the nozzles to drive the barrel towards the opposing team.

Some times the water doesn't hit the barrel and then the team gets the full benefit of it and by the time the battle is over both teams are usually pretty well soaked.

Rural Trustees Meet at Camrose

CAMROSE, Oct. 8—Mrs. Ed. Kehoe has announced that the Camrose Rural Trustees Association will hold their annual convention in the Elks Hall at Camrose on Thursday, October 20.

Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education, will be in attendance to speak to the convention. Also to be present and take part in the meeting will be A. G. Andrews who is secretary of Provincial School Trustees Association.

Legion Meeting At Mannville

VERMILION, Oct. 8 — Rally of Zone 10 of the Alberta Command of the Canadian Legion has been called by Zone Commander George Martin. The rally will be held in the Orange Hall at Mannville Tuesday, Oct. 18th at 8 p.m. Commander Martin will be in charge of the meeting.

As business of importance will come before the meeting each Post in the Zone is urged to be well represented.

BEAR RAIDER FINALLY SHOT

DIDSBURY, Oct. 8—Black bear was shot recently by W. Mork of Cremona as he approached Jerry Simington's cabin 13 miles west of Cremona. The pantry had been raided a number of times lately and the bear was believed to be the culprit.

Classified Advertising—A Public Service!

The public service rendered by classified advertising is unparalleled. It is widely read and extensively used. Forty-six per cent of the men and 50 per cent of the women over 18 years of age in the Edmonton district read some classified advertising yesterday and today and will read it again tomorrow. This fact was determined by the Advertising Research foundation (an independent fact finding organization) which made in excess of one hundred studies of the readership of large, medium and small newspapers. It was found that the classified readership has increased from pre-war to post-war with men 32% to 46% and with women 38% to 50%. This is an astounding increase and clearly shows the importance that classified advertising plays in Canadian life today.

The want ad audience is ready made for you today and consists of keenly interested prospects who are already "buying minded." It is the only kind of advertising that prospects voluntarily seek. National radio advertisers spend millions on entertainment in hopes that listeners will hear their commercials.

Direct mail depends on first impressions to "save it from the waste basket." It seeks out the reader but is NOT sought by him.

Billboards depend on "eye catchers" to direct people's attention from what they are doing, namely, going someplace.

Transit cards endeavor to get a message over while passengers are being transported to a given destination with a definite purpose in mind.

READERS OF WANT ADS must first buy a paper. The Want Ads await the convenience of the reader. They are available to him morning, noon or night as he finds time to search them for fulfillment of his needs. Many Want Ad readers KNOW what they want. They have a definite need. There are also those readers who find entertainment in the Want Ad columns and who scan its pages because they know it is a barometer of economic conditions. How often does not the power of suggestion turn these casual readers into potential purchasers?

In summary, we must all agree that classified advertising is THE ADVERTISING OF THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE AND BY THE PEOPLE.

Prior to the vote, E. E. Maxwell, supervisor of municipals, had attended meetings at Worsley, Hines Creek, Fairview and Whitelaw.

Members of the provisional hospital board are W. G. Boyd, J. F. Smith and H. Thompson of Fairview; J. M. Scuggs, Worsley and P. J. Mitchell, Hines Creek. Secretary is Mrs. M. F. Malkinson.

50-50 Split For Education Asked

Municipalities Union Urges Higher Gov't Contributions

CALGARY, Oct. 8—Backing a resolution from Lethbridge, Union of Alberta Municipalities yesterday passed a resolution asking the provincial government to consider contribution of 50 percent of requisitions of primary and secondary school boards in the province.

The resolution also recognized need for new schools and asked for government contribution to capital expenditures for such.

W. Casey, minister of education, told the convention that the federal government held a trust fund of $12,000,000 from sale of school lands and expressed the hope "this might come into the picture of federal aid."

At the moment, he said, the provinces collect interest on the fund of around $4,000,000.

So far, he said, Ottawa had expressed no favorable reaction to suggestions the fund should be used for capital construction. The fund accumulated through sale of land originally set aside for schools.

The convention passed a resolution introduced by Vegreville with regard to collection of poll taxes from employers who fail to deduct the tax from employees. The resolution asks that towns and villages be permitted to charge the tax against the business as a special tax and make collection same as other taxes or such means legally possible.

Crops Yield Well At High Prairie

HIGH PRAIRIE, Oct. 8—Grand threshing weather has prevailed to date and farmers are happy over their fine yields of grain. Brisk winds have taken the leaves from the trees—only a golden poplar remaining here and there. Gardens have mostly been garnered, huge white potatoes, yellow carrots and green cabbages are now safe in cellars.

Monte Elford, Forest Ranger, back from a trip to Goose Mountain, reports three inches of snow in the hills. There is no doubt that October's bright blue weather is the finest time of the year in the Peace River district.

Bank Installs Machine-Poster

PONOKA, Oct. 8—In line with similar improvement in many Canadian Bank of Commerce branches in the province, Ponoka branch has installed the machine-posted accounts system.

F. C. Drake of the Winnipeg branch was in charge of installing and was assisted by Al Reinholz of Edmonton, Burroughs' service man and instructor.

Legion Urges Increase In Poppy Sales

RED DEER, Oct. 8. — Special meeting of representatives of branches in No. 1 Zone, of the Central Alberta District, of the Alberta Provincial Command, of the Canadian Legion, BESL, was held in the Red Deer branch club-rooms.

W. J. C. Kirby, president of the Red Deer branch, welcomed the delegates from Innisfail, Sylvan Lake, Rocky Mountain House and Bentley. He also introduced James Speakman of Wetaskiwin, the District Commander of No. 6 District. Mr. Speakman outlined plans for the 1949 Poppy Campaign, making a special plea that all branches within the zone, increase their poppy and wreath sales by 25% this year.

W. R. Blythman, Legion special activities officer, Edmonton, gave a brief resume of the good work done, during the past year, by the Poppy Fund, handled by the Provincial Command, to assist special cases of distress among Alberta veterans. Max Wynn, of Innisfail 3rd Provincial Vice-President, also spoke.

R. German, of Sylvan Lake, was elected zone commander for the ensuing two years.

Meeting conluded with showing of film "True Glory", photographic record of World War 2 from "D" Day to the armistice.

St. Joseph's, Garneau In Grid Wins

St. Joseph's won a close 7-5 decision over Eastwood, and Varsity-Garneau walloped Westglen 7-1 in a high school football doubleheader at Clarke Satdium last night.

Ron Trepanier took a forward pass from Gordy Olson for St. Joes in the second quarter and crossed the line for a major score. Convert was kicked by Marcel Prefontaine. Norm Klingspoon's brilliant 30-yard run which was cut short eight yards of a touchdown by Roy Philion, but scored on the following down, began Eastwood's short-lived offensive with a reward of a single touchdown. Last quarter saw Bill Kehoe rouge Bob Hepburn for final Sep point.

In the first quarter of second game Stan Crawford got a rouge for Varsity in the second frame, Don Fraser was rouged by Jim Fraser to give Westglen their single point. Last minute pass from Bercov to Lloyd Sheban gave Varsity their touchdown Bercov kicked the convert.

Lineup:

St. Joseph's: Kehoe, Couture, McCaffery, Olsen, Gourdine, McKay, Meyer, Martindale, Becker, Romanluk, Courtepatte, Haley, subs: McGinnis, Kinsman, Prefontaine, De Blieck, De Paiva, B. Prefontaine, Philion, Trepanier, Escallier, Pugh, Sarnecki.

Eastwood: Hepburn, Rice, Klingspoon, Howart, Hornesty, Benich, Lockhart, Babuik, Basaraba, Burns, Glew, Duholke, subs: Hewko, Grant, Eby, Kurrant, Briner, Lester, Alferd, Hope, Bucyk.

Garneau-University: Giles, Smith, Turner, White, Picher, Reinhart, Milligan, Copeman, Bricker, Collins, Fraser, Giffen, subs: Hardy, McBride, E. Smith, Barker, Cole, Elliott, Yanda, Bercov, Crawford, D. Fraser, Sheban.

Westglen: Emery, Keckalo, Symington, Horn, G. Smith, Kowalchuk, Spevako, Main, Rogers, Forster, Hoskins, Wright, subs: Baker, Fraser, Clark, Escallier, Zenlek, Ursuliak, Day, Smith, Switzer.

Game Monday

Smitten Inks Flyer Contract

Edmonton Flyers signed another player last night.

Adding his name to the dotted line was Freddy Smitten, left winger, who brought to 12 the number of pucksters signed, sealed and delivered to the Flyers.

And Coach Frank Currie named the 16 men who will dress against Spokane Flyers Monday night in an exhibition tilt here.

"I've put the Receding Hairline back together," said Currie.

So Elmer Kreller, Alex Pringle and Freddy Smitten will perform their chores together once again.

Another line to take the ice against Spokane will be centered by Bernie Bathgate.

Flanking Bathgate will be Bing Meriuk and Andy Clovechok.

Third line assembled by Currie for the opening mix-up will be composed of Steve Latoski, Colin Kilburn and Doug Anderson.

Defence players set to take the ice Monday are Watt, Young, Cutts, Lane and Pettinger.

In the nets will be outstanding puck-stopper Ray Frederick.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Oct. 8—(AP)—Promoter Jackie King said today that Max Baer, former world's heavlweight champion, has a date to box an exhibition match with Ezzard Charles in Seattle Nov. 1.

NEIL COLVILLE OUT OF HOSPITAL

Edmonton hockey fans will be glad to know Neil Colville is well on his way to recovery from a serious illness.

The former New York Ranger star, now coach of New Haven Ramblers of the AHL, was hospitalized with a perforated ulcer.

According to brother Mac, who had a letter from him yesterday, Neil is out of hospital and planning to rejoin his club at Lake Placid.

"Neil was never one to carry a flask around with him," laughed Mac last night. "But he's carrying one now —full of eggnog."

Bootleggers Party On Excess Liquor

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 8.—(BUP)—Bootlegging business is pretty bad, according to four Vancouver men.

Detectives heard a riotous party in a well-known bootleggers so walked in to investigate. The men explained business was so bad they had decided to throw a party for themselves.

Yelling Girl Swings Fists At CCL Meet

By John Leblanc

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—(CP)—A pocket-size riot exploded in the Canadian Congress of Labor's convention yesterday as raging left-wingers battled the expulsion of a red-tinged union and threw the big assembly into uncontrolled disorder.

Supporters of expelled International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers screamed vainly against an expulsion decision. They staged the most tumultous scene witnessed in a CCL convention in many years.

One impassioned woman backing the banned union rushed the officers' platform, seized President A. R. Mosher's gavel and struggled for the chairman's microphone before being led away crying and shouting denunciations of the Congress executive.

WILD FIVE MINUTES

Other irate supporters of the Left wing union milled and jostled with members of the anti-Communist majority. Delegates leaped over chairs and tables as fisticuffs threatened for a wild five minutes.

The IUMMSW had been under an executive-imposed suspension since last March for refusing to obey an executive roder to get out of the Ontario organizing field. The CCL contended it was doing a poor job there.

Loss of the fight to keep Mine-Mill in the main body of organized labor was one of a new series of Left wing defeats. They failed to win a single executive office, despite a try for every post. Veteran President A. R. Mosher, spearhead of the anti-Red executive, went into office easily, and the whole executive was returned with him.

The left-wingers lost out on a third issue when they failed to block continuation of the CCL's association with the CCF party as the political arm of labor.

GIRL SWINGS FISTS

Bedlam broke out as the mine-mill union was given its walking papers by the Congress.

Outshouting all the rest was a pert and shapely Miss from Hamilton—Pat Rooney of the United Electrical Workers—who first fought in vain for a floor microphone and then rushed to the platform, fists clenched, trailed by a group of fellow U.E.W. members.

She seized the chairman's gavel from white-haired President Mosher and swung a fist a couple of times at Mosher as he drew back. As she started to shout in the mike an executive supporter shut off the power.

On the straight business side the convention adopted a series of resolutions today that included demands for larger unemployment insurance benefit payments and for reduction of the nine-day waiting period before these benefits are paid.

City Sunny In September

Edmonton was sunnier and drier than normal during September.

According to monthly report of the weather office here, the city had 20 per cent more sunshine last month than is normal for this time of year.

220 HOURS SUNNY

The sun shone for slightly more than 220 hours during the 30 days September hath. The normal number of sunny hours in September is 182.

But while it was bright in the city, it was also dry. Only .59 inches of rain fell while a trace of snow was recorded. Precipitation was only 43.4 per cent of the normal.

September, 1949, furnished no opportunity for recalling it as the "time of the big snowstorm." The year 1901 still holds its record for 15 inches of snowfall during Sept. and 1947's Sept. rainfall of 3.09 inches went unchallenged.

Nearest Edmonton's weather came towards establishing a record was on Sept. 11 when a killing frost ended 110 frost free days.

On The Farm

By Pat McVean

This week turned up one of the oddest annual events on the farm.

This week saw, for the first time since last Fall, the changeable lunch hour.

Farmers who made coming in from the field sharp at 12 noon a year-round tradition were unhitching at 10.45 a.m., heading into the house and sitting down beside the kitchen radio and not to hear the grain prices, either.

In rural Alberta, where baseball is as popular a topic as you can hit upon, the performance of Jackie Robinson and his spike-shoed pals was followed with an interest never accorded the activities of the Canadian Wheat Board or the production record of Alcatra Gerben, prize Holstein cow.

It might have been because no farmer can miss the parallel of the World Series battles and his annual tilt with drought, hail, grasshoppers, weevils and early frosts.

Reviewing the crop season, World Series style, the box score, as the sportswriters say, came out like this "Veteran team of the Western Canada league, Farmers fought a bitter nine-inning battle this year against their adversaries Pests and Plagues, to take the pennant in the annual agriculture clash at Prairie Field.

★ ★ ★

It was a narrow margin win with Farmers trailing badly for several innings

Earlier, wise money gave the nod to Pests and Plagues for another victory as decisive as their win in the 1937 series

Farmers took the lead in the February inning of the current series, when promise of an early spring and favorable moisture conditions put last year's winners on first base

Pests and Plagues came back in March, striking out Farmers' lead hitter, Spring Rain

Farmers showed power in the field in April, holding the mighty star of Pests and Plagues team, Grasshoppers, to little damage

Drought took the mound in the May inning. It was a tense one for Farmers and spectators, and Drought retired the side easily High Winds and Drifting Soil scored against farmers.

★ ★ ★

Drought was in the pitcher's box again for the June inning, striking out Farmers easily.

Pinch hitter, Precipitation, went in for Farmers in the bottom of the July inning. The Farmers' star sent a long drive to the field, to advance Second Growth and put Farmers ahead.

Referee Canadian Government banished Grain Exchange to the dugout for the remainder of the game early in the August inning, and Farmers fans applauded

Pests and Plagues rallied when Frost slugged a long one to Farmers field, but in the eighth Farmers sent Harvest Help to the mound and retired Pests and Plagues. At bat, Farmers worked feverishly to bring home Second Growth and Fair Yield

Graincar Shortage went in as pinch-hitter in the October inning but big Storage Space struck him out, and Farmers clinched the game with a home run by Better Prices

Fleeing Mussolini Had $8,500,000

MILAN, Oct. 8.—(Reuters) Police have found a list of part of the still-missing treasure which Benito Mussolini was carrying away with him when captured and shot by the partisans. The list shows that he had made off with gold, money of various currencies and jewelry worth about $8,500,000

Independence Being Timed

BERLIN, Oct. 8—(AP)—Russian and German Communists conferred secretly today on a timetable for awarding "independence" to the new Soviet satellite republic in eastern Germany.

Withdrawal of occupation troops from the Soviet sector of Berlin is expected to take place within 14 days. Such a move would set the stage for a possible declaration later by Russia that no soldiers of any foreign power should occupy Berlin.

West Berlin's Mayor Ernst Reuter was to meet with the city assembly today to consider the new situation. Reuter also asked all Berliners to demonstrate today, apparently to show the western allies that 2,250,000 west Berliners was to join the western republic with full rights.

CALGARY, Oct. 8—(CP)—Harry B. Brogden, business agent of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, local 1779, (AFL), was elected secretary of the Calgary Trades and Labor Council at a special council meeting last night.

Mr. Brogden will take office Nov. 1, succeeding Gordon Cushing who leaves for Ottawa to take up his duties as newly-elected general secretary-treasurer of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

Christian Science Lecture Sunday

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real"

The Sunday lesson-sermon in Christian Science churches answers this question with readings similar to these: "Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man." Matthew 15: 11

"Sin and disease must be thought before they can be manifested. You must control evil thoughts in the first instance, or they will control you in the second." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 234).

OIL

Royalite Gives Charlotte Site

By Don Flach

Site has been staked for Royalite's test for oil in the Queen Charlotte Islands on Canada's west coast. The move marks the first step outside the province for one of Alberta's largest independent oil companies.

Location for the well is on the south east coast of Graham Island near [illegible] north of the Skidgate Indian village and 500 miles north of Vancouver and 100 miles southwest of Prince Rupert.

It is on a [illegible] acre tract to which Royal tieholds a British Columbia exploration permit. Site for the well was selected by F. A. McKinnon, Royalite's exploration manager, and W. B. Gallup, the company's chief geologist, following preliminary geological survey.

USING OWN RIG

Royalite's own rig, the National 50, now being used on the Royalite Texaco [illegible] near Hobbemma, will make the 1,000-mile trip by rail and water to the location. Move, however, will not be made for nearly a month, until the Shraphead venture is completed. This well, now drilling at 5,982, will go down nearly 7,000 feet before completing the hole.

The well will test Cretaceous and Jurassic formations, and is expected to go down to 3,500 feet, though the company is prepared to go to 5,000 feet if necessary.

Reports of oil seepages on Graham and other islands in the vicinity lend hope to the prospects of finding oil at the Royalite well. It will be the second drilled in the island. The first was sunk to 1,600 feet in 1914 and bailing produced some crude oil and a considerable gas flow. [illegible] Royalite site at Graham Island.

190 AT REDWATER

In the Redwater field, Imperial has completed 53 producers. There are now nearly 190 wells in the field. Latest completion was Imperial Egremont No. 9 on lsd. 4-11-58-22W4. It rated 1,000 barrels daily on a two-hour test.

Imperial Simmons No. 1 on lsd. [illegible]W4, three miles south-east [illegible]

AUGUST PRODUCTION

A Daily Oil Bulletin survey of Edmonton region crude oil production shows that the month of August averaged 46,0?? barrels a day for a record monthly total of 1,427,-897 barrels. The region's cumulative total since the discovery of the Leduc field early in 1947 now is 14,012,420 barrels.

The Leduc-Woodbend area was the greatest producer, giving 857,-[illegible] barrels in the month from its 300 wells, and the Redwater field flowed 549,364 barrels from 141 wells in August. The rest of the August production was obtained from the discovery wells at Golden Spike, Whitemud, Bon Accord, Joseph Lake and Campbell.

Carloadings Show Increase

OTTAWA, Oct. 8—(CP)—Carloadings on Canadian railways increased during the week ended Oct. 1 to 89,594 cars, compared with 85,-[illegible] cars for the previous week but were slightly below the 90,761 cars in the corresponding week a year ago.

The Bureau of Statistics reported that western division volume at [illegible] compared with 53,202 cars in the corresponding week a year ago.

Month Opens Up With British Climb

Year's Top Levels Reached; Big Turnover On Exchanges

TORONTO, Oct. 8—(CP)—Security markets this week started the new month with a brisk climb that carried them to the highest average price levels of the year.

"Optimism" was the keynote on stock exchanges. Business was brisk as prices climbed. Steel and coal industry strikes in the United States failed to deter investors. Interest was high and black ink prominent on brokers' books.

The break-through into new high ground for the year early in the week was a psychological factor in increasing activity and continuing the rise. Prices have been within shouting distance of the high-point for some time, reaching up one week to almost touch and then sagging before trying again. The final push brought in business that had been sitting on the sidelines waiting to see if the bullish trend would last.

Devaluation of currencies was an important factor in pushing the market up the previous month. News events during September pulled the public into the market and brought some of the heaviest trading days of the year.

SEPT. 12 BIGGEST DAY

Month-end figures of the Toronto Stock Exchange showed the highest turnover and values of shares traded of the year. Approximately 20,000 buy and sell orders were counted on Sept. 12 when over 4,500,000 shares were traded.

The value of shares traded mounted by some $25,000,000 over August.

The exchange's composite index—based on the quoted market values of the outstanding capital of every stock on the board and broken into 20 groups of industries—was at the highest point of the year in September.

Livestock

EDMONTON, Oct. 8—Total receipts for this week: cattle 2,411; calves, 1,034, hogs, 3,729, sheep, 944.

Trading on the Edmonton cattle market for the past week was none too active under a somewhat uneven demand. The moderate receipts were quite ordinary in quality, there being only scattered offerings of good slaughter steers and heifers available in the run. Local Packer buyers were not very aggressive and showed most interest in the better quality butchers. Outside accounts and country feeders gave the market a substantial support and absorbed the big percentage of the sales at steady values.

Good quality butcher steers sold from 18 to 19 with the odd small lot of near choice up to 20. Bulk sales were mostly of fair to medium steers and ranged from 15.50 to 17.50.

There were very few good butcher heifers on sale. Prevailing rates were good to choice 16 to 17 and medium to good 15 to 16. Most of the sales were from 16 down.

Cows held steady under a good local demand. Good light butcher cows sold from 11.50 to 12.50 with odd heiffery kinds up to 13. Good heavy cows traded mostly from 11.50 to 12. Bulls were unchanged with heavy bolognas getting up to 14.50.

Stocker and feeder cattle were in fairly good demand with good steers 15 to 16 and breedy kinds from 16.50 to 17.00 Good stocker steers 15 to 16. Stock heifers 13 to 14 and good stock cows 10 to 11.50.

Calves were unchanged. Good to choice handyweight vealers 18 to 20 with heavy calves 14 to 18.

Hogs sold steady; Grade A for shipment 30, local plants 27.50. Sows liveweight on yards 15.50 and stags 11.50. Feeder hogs 22.00 to 27.00.

Lambs steady; good handyweights 19.00 to 20.00, with choice up to 21.00. Bulk lambs were discounted 1.00 per cwt. from grade. There were insufficient sheep on sale to establish prices.

Note—October 10, Thanksgiving Day, the stockyards will be closed for trading, but the usual facilities will be provided for the handling of consignments.

Vickers Features Montreal Trading

MONTREAL, Oct. 8—(CP)—Securities were in the plus column in today's short Saturday session.

Canadian Vickers was the feature. Minutes after the opening bell the issue soared four points to 86, but as the session prgoressed it lost some of its gain. Yesterday Canadian Vickers dropped three points to 82 after climbing nine points Wednesday and Thursday.

Royalite was another feature as it advanced 15 cents to 8.90.

Mines were dull.

LIVESTOCK TRAFFIC

EDMONTON.—Total receipts of cars trucked, driven and shipped by rail to local livestock agencies on Oct. 7: Cars 5, cattle 526, calves 271, hogs 832, sheep 194.

RECENTLY ELECTED president of Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants, Harvey R. Doane, CA, is a native of Halifax, N.S. He is a former president of Nova Scotia Institute and a member of Halifax Board of School Commissioners.

Stock Prices Move Upward

TORONTO, Oct. 8—(CP)—Prices were generally upward today on the Toronto Stock Exchange, though with advances mostly in fractions. In the industrial list, trading was mainly steady. Volume was about 900,000 shares.

Utilities and financial institutions made the best showing among the industrials; steels were divided, and other sections showed relatively few sales. International Paper went to a new high for the year of 68.25 but lost some of the gain. Canada Packers B and B.A. Oil also traded to new highs.

In late trading Steel of Canada advanced $3 to $90, and preferred 1⅝ points to 87⅝. Both are new highs for the year. The advance was on a sale of 22 shares of common and 15 shares of preferred.

Royalite, trading up 15 cents to a new high of $8.95, and Dalhousie, also ahead, supplied activity for western oils.

Cross-Ocean Buying, Selling Imperative

TORONTO, Oct. 8—(CP)—Speaking of the dollar problem is another way of saying that the United States and Canada are better off than the rest of the world.

When other countries try to sell here to get more dollars, they are attempting to achieve also greater prosperity.

As this goes on, some of our own industries may be hurt and will be watchful for anything they may consider unfair competition.

Why then, in the main do we welcome the efforts of other countries to sell here?

CAN'T EXIST DIVIDED

Because the world, and certainly the western world, cannot get along if it is divided into separate compartments. For one thing, international political considerations would forbid it. But taking the economic aspect alone:

Our western trade, the buying and selling among countries which keep great portions of our populations busy, has been built up along certain lines.

The fast advance of North America, by which it was economically outstripping countries elsewhere, would sooner or later have placed a strain on those lines, but two wars made the strain almost unbearable. North America, free from war destruction, became more wealthy despite its vast war expenditures; Europe, with devastation, became poorer.

And so the trade lines came to the breaking point where they have been for the last few years, held together only by temporary patches.

INCOME NECESSARY

To bring it to a household level: You may, without income, keep on buying from your grocer for a while, by selling a bond, surrendering an insurance policy, receiving credit, but some day it comes to an end. You are without food, the grocer is without a customer; and you both suffer.

It is more complex, but much the same principle, at the international level.

Europe, particularly Britain, needs our goods, and North America, particularly Canada, needs to sell there. If you eliminate that cross-ocean buying and selling you must revise our whole economy and way of living, with great upset.

If Europe is to buy here, she must also sell and get money with which to buy.

Profit Taking Affects Motors

NEW YORK, Oct. 8—(AP)—Demand for low-priced shares helped to prop today's stock market.

Profit-taking sales bit into some recently popular issues and on the whole the market showed a thorough mixture of gains and losses. Most changes were fractional.

Automobile stocks in particular, a couple of which advanced to 1949 highs yesterday, were singled out for profit taking operations.

Canadian issues moved narrowly. Canadian Pacific and Distillers Seagrams added ⅛. Dome Mines and Hiram Walker eased ⅛. On the curb Lake Shore edged up ⅛.

Britain Warned: Alter Coal Mines or Perish

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(CP)—Britain was told yesterday that he rchances of survival as a first-class industrial power rest largely on a revolution in coal-mining technique.

Sir Hubert Houldsworth, chairman of one of the regional units which run the nationalized coal industry, said the revolution was needed to achieve a reduction of from 10s ($1.54) to £1 ($3.08) a ton in British coal prices.

He said this "spectacular" reduction has to be made quickly to assist the country's fight for export markets and lower domestic costs.

WARNING VOICED

"I think it is clear that unless the price of coal can be reduced by a very much greater amount than 5s a ton, and in a very much shorter time than 15 years, there is little chance of our survival as a first-class industrial power," Sir Hubert said.

In an adress to the coal industry society, Sir Hubert called for suggestions for new techniques from men of original mines, and for whole-hearted co-operation by workers in adopting any new methods which would lead to greater efficiency.

Soviet Blames Trade Unions

PRAGUE, Oct. 8—(AP)—Czech coal miners—current favorites of the Communist-led government—have failed to hit the production targets set for them under the five-year plan, it was announced today.

London Clerk Unmasks As Impecunious Lord

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—For 26 years Robert Vernon, a 57-year-old lawyer's clerk, kept mum about his title. Today, though, he disclosed he's the fourth Baron Lyveden—had been, in fact, since he inherited the title from his actor father in 1923.

Vernon is getting married Oct. 18 at fashionable St. George's church. He thought it better to wed under his true title. His bride-to-be is Mrs. Doris Patterson, a widow.

"I did not publicize my title because I found it necessary to do a job of work," explained Vernon, whose father's estate was small. "When you are seeking jobs a title can be a hindrance. And there were many times when I was not in a position to live up to it."

50 Said Killed By 'Holy War' In Java

BATAVIA, Oct. 8.—(AP)—A "holy war" in northwest Java has resulted in some 50 deaths, the Dutch army announced today.

Army sources said during the last six days armed forces of Dabul Islam—a fanatical Moslem movement—burned more than 35 villages and killed about 50 persons.

Highway Meet

LETHBRIDGE, Oct. 8—(CP)—Delegates from British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan are meeting here today for the second annual convention of the Southern Trans-Canada Highway Association.

Rebel Tribesmen Slain In Burma

RANGOON, Oct. 8—(AP)—A Burma army spokesman today said 30 rebel Kachin tribesmen have been killed in a clash with government forces in the northern Shan states.

The spokesman said the government troops scattered the tribesmen among the rock-strewn hills in the area where the British-owned Burma Corporation operates mining leases.

Blessings we enjoy daily; and for most of them, because they be so common, most men forget to pay their praises; but let not us, because it is a sacrifice so pleasing to Him that made the sun and us, and still protects us, and gives us flowers and showers and meat and content.

STEVE CANYON
by MILTON CANIFF
NO USE TO KID OURSELVES! UNLESS WE GET REPLACEMENT PILOTS, GROUND MAINTENANCE PERSONNEL AND AIRCRAFT, THE DRAGONFLIES WILL BE IN A BAD WAY!
DO THE MEN KNOW THIS CANYON?
SURE, BUT MOST OF THEM ARE VETERANS AND DON'T SCARE EASILY... BESIDES, WE HAVE HAPPY'S HOOLIGANS TO KEEP A CAVALRY SCREEN AROUND THE FIELD, FOR PROTECTION AGAINST GROUND ATTACK... THAT HELPS MORALE!
MEANWHILE...
PERFECT FOOTBALL DAY! HOW'S ABOUT HAULING OUT THAT PRECIOUS PIGSKIN OF YOURS, FIDGE?
CAREFUL, PAL! THAT BLADDER'S SO FULL OF PATCHES IT COULD SNAG A PRIZE AT A QUILT SHOW!
CHOOSE UP FOR TOUCH FOOTBALL! CALL IT, ED!
CHOP SUEY BOWL, HERE WE COME!
JUST LIKE MY DAYS ON THE VARSITY!
TH' VACANT LOT VARSITY YOU MEAN!
AS THE DRAGONFLY TEAM KICKS OFF, A PATROL OF HAPPY EASTER'S HOOLIGANS RIDES BY...
GO 'WAY! DEAD BIRD B'LONG US!
AND TO THINK THAT I MIGHT HAVE TAKEN UP SOME RESPECTABLE BUSINESS AND MISSED ALL THIS!

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
BY HAROLD R FOSTER
Synopsis: GEOFFREY [illegible] VALIANT'S [illegible] TO THE [illegible]. THEN ALETA [illegible].
AND GETS FROM HIM THE FULL STORY OF THE DESPERATE FIGHTING AT THE WALL. "FOR HE SAT AND SINGING AS I LEFT," SAYS GEOFF. ALETA SHUDDERS. TOO WELL SHE KNOWS THAT VAL IS HAPPIEST WHEN THE ODDS ARE ALL AGAINST HIM!
SHORTLY THEREAFTER SHE [illegible] FOR [illegible], AND HER TWO [illegible]. FOR THIS IS ALETA THE [illegible] THEY HAVE SO OFTEN [illegible] AND FONDLY [illegible].
[illegible] THEIR FIRST PARTING.
AND SO IT MUST CARRY MANY [illegible] WIVES, SWEETHEARTS AND MOTHERS OF THE [illegible]. THESE LADIES ARE BRAVE AND GALLANT AS THEIR MEN, FOR [illegible] WAITING [illegible] WITH CALM DIGNITY.
WHEN GEOFF AWAKES FROM THE [illegible] SLEEP [illegible] TOWARD THE PERILOUS NORTH.
HIS OWN MOUNT IS STILL UNFIT FOR TRAVEL. [illegible] A HORSE, WHY NOT THE BEST?
OUT INTO THE NIGHT RIDES GEOFFREY ON [illegible]!

MUGG, YOU'RE A REAL HERO!
CHESTER GOULD
CRIMESTOPPERS' TEXT BOOK
BEFORE FINGERPRINTS MADE POSITIVE IDENTIFICATION POSSIBLE, CRIMINALS IN SOME COUNTRIES WERE BRANDED ON THE FOREHEAD AND BOTH CHEEKS.
YES, MUGG, YOU SAVED LITTLE JOHNNY'S LIFE.
AND LUCKILY, THE BOYS ONLY INJURIES ARE SOME BRUISES.
THROUGH THE BROKEN HEADLIGHT LENS, WE'VE BEEN ABLE TO ESTABLISH THAT THE HIT AND RUN CAR WAS A '48 COLONIAL SIX.
PAINT MARKS ON THE TRICYCLE INDICATE IT WAS A BLUE CAR.
NOW, AS TO THE ATTEMPTED HOLDUP OF THIS MAN'S FOOD STORE THAT TOOK PLACE ABOUT THE SAME TIME, WE'D LIKE MORE DETAILS.
THIS IS THE PICTURE: A GIRL AND A MAN CAME INTO MY STORE, WHEN ALL OF A SUDDEN I NOTICED A WHITE RAT ON THE COUNTER—
I GRABBED A BROOM TO CHASE THE RAT, WHEN I SAW THE GIRL RANSACKING MY CASH REGISTER.
I LUNGED FOR HER—AND THE BIG GUY SHOT. THEY RAN OUT.
A WHITE RAT? WHERE DID THAT COME FROM?
THE MORE I THINK OF IT—I BELIEVE THE GIRL BROUGHT IT IN WITH HER.
WHAT?
AND IN ANOTHER PART OF TOWN:
EEK!
YOW!
IT WENT UNDER THOSE BOXES.

WHEN I HIRED YOU FOR MY HUNTING GUIDE, YOU SAID WE DIDN'T NEED TO BRING MUCH FOOD!
I KNOW, ELMER! I FIGGERED WE'D BE SHOOTIN' PUHLENTY O' STUFF!
NOW THERE'S NOTHING TO EAT... AN' I'M HUNGWY!
DON'T WORRY, SUPER GUIDE BUNNY AIN'T GONNA LET YA DOWN!
WHAT ARE YOU DOING NOW, YOU BALMY BUNNY?
I'M GETTIN' READY T' FIX YA A TASTY SNACK!
FIRST YOU PULLED UP THOSE BUSHES, AN' NOW YOU'RE TEAWING BARK OFF THAT TWEE! WHY?
I'M GONNA BREW YA SWELL STEW, ELMER, OL' PAL!

ISN'T THAT NICE!
AS FAR BACK AS THE CRUSADES, WE HOOPLES HAVE BEEN LEADERS IN HISTORY!
THAT'S INDEED INTERESTING!
IT WAS LORD BALDWIN HOOPLE WHO PERSUADED THE KING TO LAUNCH THE FIRST CRUSADE!
WHAT KING DID YOU SAY?
WHY, KING RICHARD THE LION-HEARTED, MY GOOD WOMAN — OF COURSE!
IT WAS? I THOUGHT IT WAS GODFREY OF BOUILLON!

YOU BETTER COUNT ME OUT ON THE MOVIE--GET LIL TO GO WITH YOU! I'M BURIED IN THIS BOOK ON MEMORY--FIGURE IT MIGHT BE SOME HELP IN MY OFFICE WORK!
IT MIGHT BE OF SOME HELP AROUND HERE, TOO!
YOU'VE BEEN BURIED IN THAT BOOK FOR SEVERAL NIGHTS! I SHOULD THINK YOU'D HAVE DEVELOPED A MEMORY BUMP BY THIS TIME! HOW ABOUT THAT PICTURE I ASKED YOU TO HANG?
ALL RIGHT, ALL RIGHT--I'LL TAKE CARE OF IT RIGHT NOW!
AN' I'LL GET ALL THE THINGS YOU'LL NEED!
HERE'S THE WORKS, DAD!
LET'S SEE, NOW--YOUR MOTHER SAID SHE WANTED IT HUNG RIGHT UP THERE!
NOW WHERE'S A NAIL? DON'T TELL ME YOU FORGOT THAT!
WHY--AH--JUST A MINUTE--I'LL RUN RIGHT OUT TO THE GARAGE AND GET ONE!
HERE'S A WHOLE CAN OF NAILS--TAKE YOUR PICK!
FINE--BUT YOUR FORGETFULLNESS CAUSED A USELESS WASTE OF TIME! YOU SHOULD TRY TO TRAIN YOUR MEMORY, WILLIS!
DRAT IT! NOW WHERE DID I LAY THE HAMMER?
YOU HAD IT JUST A MINUTE AGO!
WELL, YOU LOOK AROUND FOR IT WHILE I MOVE THE LADDER A BIT!
GOSH! IT DIDN'T HAVE LEGS AND RUN AWAY--THAT'S FOR SURE!
THERE IT IS--YOU LEFT IT ON TOP OF THE LADDER!
THERE'S QUICK WORK, MOM! DAD'S ALREADY DEVELOPED THAT MEMORY BUMP YOU WERE TALKING ABOUT!

WILLIE'S NERVES IS A LOT BETTER, LADY P. HE'S ANSWERED ME BACK TWICT WITHOUT DODGIN'.
OH, I KNEW HE'D IMPROVE IF HE TOOK HIS MEDICINE RELIGIOUSLY.
RELIGIOUSLY? IF YA COULD HEAR HIM HOLD HIS NOSE WHEN MAMIE SHOVES A DOSE INTO HIM' YA WOULDN'T THINK SO.
THREE-HANDED DON'T MAKE NO KIND OF A POKER GAME I'M GOIN' HOME.
AW, SET DOWN, PIG-EARS ME AND WHAMMY'LL PICK UP UNCLE WILLIE.
I'M NOT NUTTY ABOUT DOIN' THIS, MOON.
THERE'S NOTHIN' TH' MATTER WITH UNCLE WILLIE EXCEPT HIS WIFE DON'T WANT HIM TO GO OUT, WHAMMY.
WELL, I'LL BE A SON OF A SEA COOK!
NOW, WILLIE, DON'T GET EXCITED. THIS IS DR. WHAMMY, TH' NOTED NERVE SPECIALIST, WHICH ANOTHER DOCTOR SENT OVER.
HM-M- MR MULLINS SEEMS TO BE A VERY QUIET, KIND AND GENTLE SORT OF PATIENT
NAW. HE'S JEST SCARED OF MAMIE.
WHY, WHAT YOU NEED, MR MULLINS IS EXERCISE, PLENTY OF FRESH AIR- LONG WALKS—
I GUESS I HAD BETTER START IN RIGHT NOW, DOC.
I AIN'T BEEN FEELIN' SO SPORTY MYSELF, DOC. WOULD YOU MIND TAKIN' A LOOK AT ME?
HUH? ER-YES. OPEN YOUR MOUTH AND SAY, "AH".
AHHH!
GOOD GRACIOUS! YOU HAVE HOUSEMAID'S KNEE A VERY BAD CASE OF HOUSEMAID'S KNEE.
OH, MY, DOCTOR! WHAT SHALL I DO?
GO RIGHT TO BED, MRS. MULLINS, AND STAY THERE. AND YOU, MR MULLINS, GET OUTDOORS, TAKE A WALK, SIR, A LONG WALK!
YES, SIR.
DR. WHAMMY! HO-HO-HO-HO!
SHHH-NOT SO LOUD, WHAMMY, WE'RE ONLY THREE BLOCKS AWAY FROM THE HOUSE AND MAMIE'S GOT EARS THAT CAN HEAR THE GRASS GROW.
I WONDER WHAT MAMIE'LL SAY WHEN SHE FINDS OUT WHAMMY AIN'T REALLY A DOCTOR, MOON.
WELL, YOU KNOW JEST AS MANY WORDS AS I DO, UNCLE WILLIE- GO ON AND DEAL 'EM UP.

MORE TROUBLE!
THERE'S THAT TOUGH KID WATCHIN' ME!
HE'S WAITING FOR ME TO START FOR SCHOOL
I'VE HAD ENOUGH OF THAT GUY !!!
WHAT IF HE IS A BIG GUY -- THE BIGGER THEY ARE, THE HARDER THEY FALL!
I'LL SHOW HIM I'M NOT AFRAID OF HIM
LISTEN, TOUGH GUY--YOU'RE WASTING TIME WAITING FOR ME--
I'M GOING TO SCHOOL AND IF YOU GET IN MY WAY, IT'S GONNA BE JUST TOO BAD FOR YOU!
--AND ANOTHER THING--
SHUT UP, LITTLE MUG --NOW LET ME TELL YOU SOMETHIN'
'BY THO LONG, MA
P.S. 39

LEAPIN' LIZARDS! ALL THOSE MEN COMIN' THIS WAY CARRYIN' ALL SORTS O' STUFF--AND OLD DOC IS LEADIN' 'EM--
AND ROCKY IS FOLLOWING THEM WITH WHAT LOOKS LIKE A CLUB!
"HE SPAKE, AND STRAIGHT UPON HIS LIPS PERSUASION SATE." (HOMER) --AND MAYBE ROCKY, STANDING BY WITH A CLUB, DIDN'T EXACTLY DULL DOC'S ARGUMENT--
DOC SAID WE COULD PUT A FLOOR OVER PART O' TH' BARGE AND A ROOF AND CLOSE IT IN, SO WE COULD FEED FOLKS ALL WINTER LONG---
IT SOUNDED CRAZY--- IT COSTS SO MUCH TO BUILD ANYTHING THESE DAYS--
RIGHT THIS WAY, BOYS! HOLD IT, RIGHT HERE--NOW TWO OF YOU STOUT FELLOWS UP TH' LADDER--WE'LL RIG A HOIST---NOTHING TO IT FOR BRIGHT CHAPS LIKE YOU--
I DIDN'T ASK FER DIS--C'MON, ROCKY! I AIN'T BEEN WELL-- I AIN'T FIT FER HEAVY WORK--LEMME GO!
YOU AIN'T GOIN' TO HAVE TO ASK FER THIS, CHUM! BUT YOU'RE GOIN' TO GIT A LOT LESS WELL, LESS'N YOU GIT IN THERE AN' HUSTLE, SAME AS TH' REST!
O. K.---O. K.--DOC SAID IT WAS FREE EATS IF WE DONE A GOOD JOB--O. K.--I'LL GO ALONG!
GREAT IDEA I HAD--EH, ANNIE? EVERYBODY PITCHING IN--EACH DOING HIS SMALL PART TO HELP A GREAT CAUSE---THE TRUE COMMUNAL SPIRIT--
YEAH! I'LL SAY! WORK LIKE A DOG OR GET A SHOT IN TH' HEAD FROM ROCKY! COMMUNAL SPIRIT IS RIGHT!
OH, COME NOW, ANNIE! MOST OF THE BOYS WANTED TO HELP AFTER I MADE MY SPIEL--OF COURSE, THERE ARE ALWAYS A FEW BORN BUMS IN ANY CROWD--- ROCKY HAD THE ARGUMENT TO CONVINCE THEM---
WOW! LOOK AT THAT FLOOR GROW--THOSE BEAMS--AND TH' BOARDS--AND NAILS--AND TH' CANVAS AND WINDOW SASH--AND ALL TH' OTHER STUFF--WHO PAID FOR IT ALL?
AH, YES---WELL, WE DIDN'T--WE LET EACH ONE BRING SOMETHING--SORT OF A SCAVENGER HUNT, EH?
10-9-49
OF COURSE, WE PAY IN A WAY--I PROMISED A WEEK'S FREE MEALS! NOT CHICKEN EVERY SUNDAY-- --BUT LOBSTER! OUR SPECIAL LOBSTER, WITH ALL THE TRIMMINGS, EVERY DAY!
AS I TOLD 'EM, QUOTING W. A. CROFFUT, "OH, DAINTY AND DELICIOUS! FOOD FOR THE GODS! AMBROSIA FOR APICIUS! WORTHY TO THRILL THE SOUL OF SEA-BORN VENUS, OR TITILLATE THE PALATE OF SILENUS!"

I HOPE SO, KIDS.
WE'RE NEVER GOING TO BE OLD MARRIED FOLKS, ARE WE, SWEET?
I WANT TO TALK ALL THIS OVER WITH YOU, CORKY.
I DO TOO, POP.
YOU ARE MARRIED NOW. WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS?
WELL, YOU WERE HELPING ME THROUGH COLLEGE, AND HOPE'S FOLKS WERE HELPING HER.
WE'VE EACH GOT A YEAR TO GO. I FIGURED WE COULD JUST GO ON THAT WAY.
THERE IS ONE LITTLE ITEM YOU HAVE OVERLOOKED, SON.
SO FAR, HOPE'S PARENTS HAVE BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR HER. BUT NOW SHE'S MARRIED, AND SHE'S NOT THEIR PROBLEM ANY MORE. SHE'S YOURS!
YEP. THAT'S RIGHT.
AND, YOU SEE, IF YOU ARE MY RESPONSIBILITY, SO IS HOPE.
I HADN'T LOOKED AT IT JUST THAT WAY, POP.
YOU DON'T GET G I BENEFITS, AND YOUR STANDINGS DON'T POINT TOWARD SCHOLARSHIPS —
I GUESS WE DID SORT OF LET UP.
SO YOU SEE, COLLEGE FOR BOTH OF YOU WILL BE ON MY SHOULDERS.
I DIDN'T HAVE IT FIGURED THAT WAY.
I SEEM TO BE IN THE MIDDLE.
LOOKS LIKE YOU'RE RIGHT, POP.
GOSH, THERE'S QUITE A LOT TO GETTING MARRIED, ISN'T THERE!
